MEET THE PANTHERS—Members of the Black Panther Party were met on the State Capitol steps yesterday by State Police Lt. Earnest Holloway, who informed them that they would be allowed to keep their weapons as long as they caused no trouble and did not try to disturb the peace. Dixie Unification Backing Asked

The San Rafael Board of Education should support and promote unification of San Rafael Elementary and High School Districts and Dixie School District.

This was the recommendation of the Citizen Finance Advisory Committee presented to the board last night by John Schmitz, committee chairman.

Schmitz reported that the unification sub-committee felt unification would improve the educational programs.

There would be continuity and coordination of programs from kindergarten through 12th grade, he contended. Unification would "reduce the problems of students entering high school with varying educational backgrounds."

It would allow long-range planning and avoid duplication in some curriculum areas and lack of coverage in others, he said.

The unified school district should be under the jurisdiction of general law and not subject to San Rafael City Council appointments, Schmitz said.

If unification had passed in an election last year, San Rafael school taxes would have increased about 31 cents per $100 assessed valuation and Dixie school taxes would have dropped about 83 cents per $100 assessed valuation, he reported. "We estimate that the same general picture would apply to future unification."

With unification it would be necessary to bring the salaries of Dixie teachers up to San Rafael's salary schedule, which is higher, Schmitz said. "We recommend that this be done in a number of stages in order to reduce the immediate impact on the taxpayer."

The unified district would receive a state bonus, now $15 per pupil, but would not be "improverished" and therefore not eligible for state aid for a building program, he said.

Schmitz also presented recommendations of the operating subcommittee for administrative organization of San Rafael city schools on a basis of kindergarten through high school.

The operating committee also recommended changes in the teacher salary schedule, but no across-the-board increase for the 1967-68 school year.

Raises should be given "in such times and in such amounts as are necessary," the committee report said.

The committee also recommended that a committee be formed to study the feasibility of developing a merit pay and/or a master teaching program.

High Times Distribution Is Approved

By FRANK FARRARA

San Rafael Board of Education last night approved distribution of High Times, a countywide student newspaper, on high school campuses, and agreed to partially underwrite the publication for next fall semester.

In contrast to previous stormy controversy over the paper, last night's session was calm.

At the start of the meeting Col. W. S. Richards of 118 Linden Lane objected to spending district funds for High Times.

Bob King of Terra Linda High School, a member of the High Times staff, described the paper as "an open forum" which encouraged "free non-biased exchange of ideas and opinions" and provided a medium for communication "between students and between teens and their community."

The Pacific Sun, present publisher of High Times, will be unable to continue publishing it after this school year ends, he said.

CARRYING GUNS

Black Panthers Stun Assembly

By WAT TAKESHITA

SACRAMENTO — Stunned legislators predicted stronger weapons legislation in Sacramento today, in the wake of an armed invasion of the capitol by a band of Negroes yesterday noon.

About 25 members of the anti-white Black Panthers of Oakland silently marched into the capitol just before noon yesterday. A half dozen men with loaded guns at "port arms" burst into the Assembly chamber while the legislators were in session. No shot was fired.

They were detained briefly by state police in the capitol and later arrested by Sacramento police a few blocks away.

The Negroes, ranging in age from 17 to 30, were charged with possessing illegal sawed-off shotguns, brandishing weapons in a threatening manner, disrupted the Legislature in session(and a fish and game violation of carrying loaded weapons in a car.

Meanwhile 19 of the 24 Black Panthers appeared in Municipal Court today on felony charges of conspiring to disrupt a session of the Assembly and were ordered to go before the Superior Court judge for arraignment later in the day. The juvenile cases were handled separately.

A hald dozen Black Panthers burst past the swinging gates of the Assembly, brushing three sergeants at arms aside to get onto the Assembly floor.

Once inside the chambers, they were immediately surrounded by newsmen and photographers, and by security officers who quickly ushered them out of the chambers.

"They just barged right in," said Sergeant-at-arms Tony Beard. "I didn't check to see if the guns were loaded. No firearms are allowed in the Assembly chambers, so we ushered them out and the state police took over."

A member of the state police in the capitol said about three of the men were later disarmed. He said the magazines of their guns were fully loaded but the chambers were empty.

Spokesman for the group was Bobby George Seale, 30, clad in dark beret and black leather jacket, with a holstered automatic slung over his left shoulder. He did most of the talking. The others, including several women, were grim-faced and tight-lipped, referring all

DOPE PROBLEM

Teen-Agers 'Going To Pot' Across State

(Second in a series)
By HAROLD V. STREETER

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — All over California, more teen-agers literally "are going to pot."

Authorities — particularly in the densely populated sectors—report that the usage of marijuana (pot) by youngsters has risen sharply within a year because:

It is easy to get. A ton of it was seized recently at Long Beach, smuggled in from Mexico—enough for 2.8 million users.

It is cheap. A reefer (cigarette) generally costs about 50 cents.

And, although definitely illegal, a controversy still rages over just how dangerous marijuana is.

The more potent and costly LSD—one Los Angeles youth said it made him think he was traveling through his own veins—just has begun to enter the juvenile scene. Its going price of from $3 up to $10 a tablet or capsule is a slowing factor.

Max Rafferty, state superintendent of public instruction, branding the LSD problem "dry rot in the human soul," recently told 1,200 public school administrators he foresaw it as posing the biggest problem in California education in the near future.

"It's a matter of availability," says Southern California's state narcotics bureau head, Burnell H. Barnard, on juvenile usage of marijuana and LSD.

"There's a lot more of it around.

"But mostly it's this propaganda that marijuana and LSD are no worse than or not as bad as using alcohol.

"At least 50 per cent of the high school students in a school are aware of or in contact with users of narcotics."

Sgt. Eugene Zappey, who heads the 16-man narcotics unit in the juvenile division of the Los Angeles police, says kids as young as 12 have been caught smoking marijuana.

Marijuana has become so big among Los Angeles city 16 and

Savage Combat Brings Marines Control Of Hill

Reds Use GI Gear In Fight

SAIGON (UPI) — U.S. Marines today wrested control of strategic Hill 881 North from elite North Communist troops in a day of savage attacks and counterattacks in which U.S. Marine Lt. Gen. Lewis W. Walt dived for a foxhole when he came under Red fire.

A Marine spokesman said 40 North Vietnamese—some of them going into battle in American uniforms and helmets—were killed today. That brought to 775 the number of Communists reported killed in the week of fighting with the Marines. A spokesman told Walt the toll was nearer 1,000.

RED LOSSES

Heavy Communist losses in three other major battles near Hue, near Pleiku and in the Mekong Delta, brought the Communist dead reported today to 1,252.

Walt, commander of the 76,000 Marines defending the northern provinces of South Vietnam against a possible Communist invasion, visited the area today. Shots rang out and a Marine a short distance from Walt fell wounded as Walt dived into a foxhole with the others.

GIGANTIC EFFORT

The North Vietnamese troops tried almost everything to try to win back the hill, including a pre-dawn counter-attack and the use of GI uniforms.

Elsewhere, U.S. infantrymen and South Vietnamese paratroopers reported killing more than 300 Communist soldiers in two battles more than 400 miles apart. Another American unit uncovered one of the largest enemy caches of the war north of Saigon.

A spokesman said the Marine company was in night defensive positions six miles northwest of the forward command post at Khe Sanh when Communist gunners launched a heavy mortar attack at 4:30 a.m. The barrage was followed with an assault by the two Communist companies, perhaps more than 300 men.

Units from other Marine companies moved in as O-47 Drag-

Normal Spring Finally Arrives

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — It's finally beginning to look like normal spring in California, the harassed weather forecaster said today.

"The weather map is not in complete accord with this, however," noted Forecaster W. E. Benkman.

"The normal high pressure off the coast is absent. In its stead is a lower pressure center 400 miles west of San Francisco. This low poses a threat of showers but it is beginning to move more to the southeast and the scattered showers are now more likely to occur in Southern California."

The five-day forecast through next Monday for the north central area calls for-occasional showers.

160,000 More Troops Asked

NEW YORK (AP) — Gen. William C. Westmoreland has asked President Johnson to send another 160,000 fighting men to Vietnam to bring the total U.S. strength to 600,000, the New York Times reported from Saigon today.

Quoting informed sources, the dispatch said Westmoreland, commander of U.S. forces in Vietnam, made the request during his trip to the United States last week and urged that the reinforcements be sent "as soon as possible."

Associates said he hoped the buildup could be completed by Jan. 1, the Times said.

Life In Prison For Ben Rasnick

OAKLAND (UPI) — A jury of five women and seven men, after only a half hour of deliberations, today returned a verdict of life in prison in the mruder trial of Painters Union executive Ben Rasnick.

No Major Troops Buildup Seen For Vietnam Now, Says Johnson

WASHINGTON (UPI) —President Johnson said today that while troop requirements in Vietnam are under constant study, no major manpower buildup was imminent or a decision expected within the next few weeks.

Johnson called reporters into his office at 11:17 a. m. EDT, for a news conference with no prepared announcements in hand.

Primarily he answered their questions on a broad range of subjects ranging from Vietnam and U.S. force levels in Europe to railroad-labor management difficulties and the climate of dissent at home.

As for reports that U. S. troop levels in Vietnam may be raised substantially in the near future. Johnson reacted cautiously and in only the most general terms.

He said needs of the armed forces in Southeast Asia are under constant review—as they are now by Gen. William C. Westmoreland, U.S. commander in Vietnam, and Adm. U.S. Grant Sharp, commander in chief in the Pacific.

Other major points that Johnson made included:

In the next day or two he expects to send to Congress a special message and resolution outlining an additional procedure for coping with a threatened strike of the nations railroads by shopcraft unions.

He still wants congress to pass his recommended 6 per

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Business Role Suits Ex-King

LOS ANGELES (AP)—It's a long way from the Yugoslavian throne, but the businessman's swivel chair seems to suit exiled King Peter 11 just fine.

Peter

"I don't think the training as a monarch helps much," King Peter said yesterday as he went to work with the Sterling Savings and Loan Association of California.

"But I can tell you," he said at a news conference, "I think my connections all over Europe will help a lot. We will try to recruit savings from people abroad."

And the prestige? Doesn't that kingly image suffer a little in the role of a businessman?

"I think taking this job raises my stature," he replied.

Asked if he went to work out of necessity, the exiled king said: "I have independent means up to a point. When we left I had a little money, but nothing extraordinary."

South Korea Votes

SEOUL, South Korea (AP) — Eighty per cent of South Korea's 13.9 million registered voters were expected to vote today in the presidential election, and President Chung Hee Park was favored to win a second term.

Captured Asleep

OAKLAND (AP) — Two men escaped Alameda County Prison last night but one was recaptured early today as he slept in a car.

Still at large was Morris Marvin, 22, of San Leandro, awaiting trial on a rape charge.

The recaptured man is James Elmer Payton, 19, of Long Beach, serving time for stealing credit cards. He was picked up in Livermore.

Truce In Shipyards

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Truce in the Pacific Coast Shipyards strike has been extended to July 1.

The extension was agreed on last night to allow working out of a new formula for settling the dispute which resulted in a 120-day strike-lockout against 13 yards.

Joins Novato Force

Ronald Schanaker, 33, of Santa Rosa reported to work yesterday as an officer with the Novato police department. He has worked for the Santa Barbara sheriff's office, the Whittier police department and the Mendocino sheriff's office.

Beaten On Birthday

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A San Francisco bus driver survived a beating on his 35th birthday yesterday by rolling himself into a ball.

John O. Pedroncini, although beaten by fists and sticks by a gang of eight juveniles who rolled him out of his bus and into the street, was sent home from San Francisco General Hospital after being treated for a skinned knee and several scratches.

Milk For Chicago

CHICAGO (UPI) — Fresh milk deliveries were resumed today following the settlement of a strike and lockout which had affected 61 dairies and dried up the milk supply in the metropolitan area.

Negroes Fail In Mississippi Delta Races

SUNFLOWER, Miss. (UPI) — Whites remained firmly in control of local governments today in two Mississippi Delta towns where Negroes failed to win a single race despite a voting majority in one town.

Mayor W. L. Patterson and five aldermen swept to victory in Sunflower and Mayor W. I. Upchurch and four city councilmen won re-election in Moorehead in the special elections ordered by a federal court.

In all races, the white incumbents were opposed by Negro candidates of the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party (FDP) and several Negro independents.

Negroes held a 33-vote registration majority in Sunflower, but Patterson, 57, a veteran of 12 years in office, defeated Otis Brown Jr., a former civil rights worker, by a vote of 194 to 123. The leading Negro candidate for alderman was 40 votes behind the bottom white incumbent.

"I think this is the best thing that ever happened to our town," said Patterson. "I think relations are going to be better now because of the willingness of Negroes and whites to work together."

In Moorhead, where whites had about a 100-vote majority, Upchurch defeated his Negro opponent, James Lee Douglas, by a vote of 370 to 264.

It was the first time since Reconstruction that Negroes had entered full slates of candidates in the two rural towns in Sunflower County, where Sen. James O. Eastland, D-Miss., has a 5,800-acre plantation. Negroes make up 31,020 of the country's 45,750 population.

Because of their vocal powers mockingbirds were once kept in cages as pets but this is no longer legal.

Dirksen Marshals GOP Into Line On Vietnam

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen is keeping his sometimes balky Republican troops lined up behind President Johnson in fighting the war in Vietnam.

The resilient Dirksen climbed out of a hospital bed Monday, not yet fully recovered from a bout with pneumonia, to put down an incipient revolt among party members who don't like the way the war is going and are searching for a Republican alternative.

When Dirksen got through lecturing them at a closed Policy Committee meeting about the political liabilities of questioning the comander in chief's basic direction of a bloody conflict, they went docilely along with a statement giving "wholehearted support" to Johnson and standing "foursquare" behind him.

This put the Senate Republicans in line with the latest stance assumed by one of the leading candidates for their party's 1968 presidential nomination, Michigan Gov. George Romney.

SEN. EVERETT DIRKSEN

WILY DIRKSEN

Romney said in Atlanta, Ga., Monday that "I don't think we should pursue a way that will weaken the President as long as he is president. And I don't think we should pursue a course that will help the enemy."

The wily Dirksen left an avenue open for the GOP dissenters in "preserving wholly the right of full and fair inquiry and criticism" on their part. They, in turn, left no doubt of their intention to march up that route.

Sens. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., and Charles H. Percy, R-Ill., leading war critics, enlisted Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., a supporter of Johnson's course, in urging greater administration efforts to get negotiations and avoidance of any step that might bring Red China into the war.

Javits said this and other proposals were being submitted for a proposed policy statement. Dirksen said a statement will be made by the Senate-House leadership at its next meeting. But he made it clear it will not "modify our support of the President."

Sen. Mark O. Hatfield, R-Ore., a first-line war critic, called for "a frank review within the Republican party of this nation's policies and objectives in Vietnam."

OF GREAT VALUE

He was happy about a disputed report of the Policy Committee's staff which sharply criticized Johnson's policies and suggested that Repubicans ought not to take any responsibility for his "mistakes."

"I velieve this report will be of great value to us in proposing alternatives to administration policies which have been unable to bring either victory or solution," he said.

But Sen. John G. Tower, R-Texas, said that while the bulk of the report was factual and useful, "I find it necessary to dissassocate myself with a number of its inferences and suggested conclusions."

Senate Beats Off Abortion Bill Attack

SACRAMENTO (UPI) —Members of the Senate resigned themselves today to the fact they will have to stand up and be counted on the ticklish issue of revising California's century-old abortion law.

An attempt to sidetrack a therapeutic abortion act by Sen. Anthony C. Beilenson, D-Beverly Hills, to the Finance Committee was beaten back yesterday on the Senate floor.

The Senate voted down 17-22 an amendment that would have required the legislation to go to Finance for review.

Beilenson said he believed he would have a "difficult" time getting the bill out of Finance and back on the Senate floor. He said this apparently was the intent of the amendment's author, Sen. H. L. Richardson, R-Arcadia.

Sen. Donald L. Grunsky, R-Watsonville, whose Judiciary Committee approved the abortion bill last week, said it appeared many senators were attempting to escape voting on the controversial issue. The abortion bill has inspired the heaviest mail of the legislative session.

"But this is one of those items, as unhappy as it may be, that you are going to have to stand up and be counted on a controversial issue," Grunsky said.

But Grunsky said this might not be as painful as it looked. He said proponents and opponents of the bill had stopped pestering him since it became known he voted for the measure known he voted for the measure.

Chicken Killers

Mrs. Diane C. Milos, 36, of 815 Reichert Avenue, Novato, reported Monday to Novato police that two beagle dogs got into her back yard last Friday noon while she was away and killed two chickens.

Protestant Clergy Clashing On United Church Formation

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — A clash of viewpoints today confronted Protestant representatives over whether to press ahead with development of a plan for a united church — or to defer it temporarily.

"We can no longer pussyfoot in this matter," declared Methodist Bishop John Wesley Lord of Washington, D.C., urging immediate steps to proceed with the work.

However, Episcopal Bishop G. Francis Burrill of Chicago said such action would be "premature at this point" and would appear to be "without authorization of the bodies we represent" until they specifically sanction it.

The friction, simmering behind the scenes all day in closed committee sessions, came out in the open at a last night session of the Consultation on Church Union.

It involves 10 major denominations with a total of 25.5 million members.

After reaching agreement on modes of worship, a common ministry and doctrinal standards for a unified church in five previous years of work, the key issue here was whether to go on and draft an organization system.

A study commission recommended postponing it to allow further exploration.

Tam Valley Station Hit By Burglars

Burglars broke a lubrication room window at Fred Yates Chevron service station, 204 Flamingo Road, Tamalpais Valley, early yesterday to steal about $40 cash from the office, sheriff's officers said today.

Yates discovered the break-in at 6:45 a.m. yesterday.

Mrs. Rebecca M. Allen, teacher at Marin City Nursery School, Drake Avenue, told deputies someone apparently entered through an open window at the school last weekend and stole a set of keys.

Robert Bardfield, 14 Washington Avenue, Santa Venetia, reported Sunday that burglars entered his home, probably via an open rear door, and took a bottle of liquor.

Burglars removed a purse containing about $85 cash from the locked trunk of the automobile of Jack W. Fiske, 101 Upper Alcatraz Place, Mill Valley, while it was parked Monday at Las Gallinas Golf Course, he told officers.

Alto District Bill Faces $10,000 Hike

Mill Valley's proposal to bill sanitary districts using its sewage treatment plant for trunk line improvements on the basis of the number of connections would cost Alto Sanitary District $10,000, directors learned last night.

Improvement of the trunk line between Sutton Manor and the plant would cost the district $2,000 under the present system of billing on the basis of assessed valuation, directors were told by city councilman George E. Wickham. The proposed basis of billing would increase the cost to $12,000, the councilman estimated, reported director Carl O. Heynen Jr.

The city argues that persons who use the line should pay for it, and not be charged on the basis of assessed valuation.

Directors took no action, Heynen said, "because we want to get the feeling of the people before we decide." Director William P. Stichney was absent.

3.8 Acres Sold In Marin City

Marin County Redevelopment Agency last night approved sale for $41,000 of 3.8 acres to Marin City Community Services District, reported Donald O. Stutsman, agency director.

The parcel, near Drake Avenue, will be used for the district's Manzanita Neighborhood Center. Construction is to begin this spring.

The agency had hoped to sell the district 5.6 acres, appraised at $60,000, but the federal government disallowed discount of the sale price to about $30,000, Stutsman said.

Commissioners authorized $350 for two commissioners and two staff members to attend the National Association of Housing and Redevelopment Agency officials convention in Fresno, May 21-23.

Whooping Cough Cases In County

Three cases of pertussis (whooping cough) showed up in Marin County last week, disclosed Dr. Carolyn B. Albrecht, county health officer.

Of other reportable diseases, there were 91 cases of streptococcus infection, 10 of measles, eight each of gonorrhea and mumps, three of infectious hepatitis, two of German measles, and one case of tuberculosis.

The attack was repulsed and by 10 a.m. the fighting appeared to have died down, the spokesman said.

Other Marines reported they occupied Hill 881 South in an assault yesterday to clear the enemy from that point overlooking infiltration routes from Laos.

In bitter fighting since April 25 in the rugged area, counting the latest casualties, the Marines have lost a total of 116 men killed and 321 wounded. Marines have reported killing 464 Communists.

While the ground fighting raged from the Mekong Delta in the south to South Vietnam's northernmost provinces, U.S. fighter-bombers kept the aerial pressure on North Vietnam. American pilots flew through overcast skies yesterday, using radar controls and bombing through breaks in the clouds to pound the main rail lines running northeast and northwest from Hanoi to Red China.

A U.S. Air Force F-105 Thunderchief was downed by ground fire in North Vietnam today but the pilot, Maj. Charles C. Vasiliadis, 39, of Huntington, N.Y., was pulled from the jungle by a helicopter 36 minutes later. It was the 529th American combat plane reported lost in the war against North Vietnam.

publication of the newspaper by San Rafael and Tamalpais High School Districts and Novato Unified School District, with each assuming a share of the cost on the basis of enrollment.

Journalism advisers would be responsible to see that stories "follow the canons of good journalism," he said. All copy will be written by students, except letters to the editors will be approved by the journalism advisers.

King estimated that it would cost $425 to print an eight-page newspaper bi-monthly, advertising revenue would total $180, leaving $245 as the cost per issue. San Rafael's share would be about $80 an issue.

After discussing the possibility of having students pay part of the cost, the board agreed to contribute up to half of $850 for the fall semester.

The vote was 4-1, Carl J. Brown dissenting. "I'm for High Times, but I think the students should work it out in their budget and pay from student body funds," he declared.

He said he hoped Congress would extend his proposed aid to primary and secondary education. He said he did not want to put party labels on did object to "a meat-axe approach" which, he said, would tear apart the formula which had improved this area of education substantially.

On prospects of starting peace negotiations in Vietnam, the Presidents said that peace possibilities are being pursued daily with no tangible results as yet. "We will diligently pursue each day any route we think will lead to peaceful settlement-...but I don't see any hopes at the moment.

Infant Dies This Morning

The six-week old son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard S. Bain Jr. of 3 Taylor Lane, Corte Madera, died this morning at the family home.

The child's father called firemen at 8:57 a.m. to ask for a resuscitator because the child, Chardin Bain, was not breathing. Firemen administered resuscitation, then called for a doctor. Dr. Royce J. Truex responded and declared the child dead at 9:20 a.m., and the coroner was called.

The boy was born March 17 at Marin General Hospital.

Tram Car Won't Deliver To Lots

Tiburon's Cable-Car TRAM, which will meet the commuters 6 p.m. ferry from San Francisco, at Main Street, will not "deliver commuters to their parking lots," as reported yesterday in the Independent-Journal, City Mgr. Lawrence D. Rose said today.

After meeting the ferry, the tram will make its final westbound run up Tiburon Boulevard to the Alto Wye, dropping commuters off at several stops along the way, Rose said.

Teen-Agers 'Going To Pot' Across State

17-year-olds that Zappey and his division boss, Capt. W.L. Richey are pleading for more men to cope with it.

Two teen-aged brothers were sent to the California Youth Authority for one to two years for selling narcotics to high school classmates in San Francisco. One brother, 17, made so much money that he rented his own apartment on Twin Peaks for $275 a month.

Sheriff John Misterly made an informal survey at a South Sacramento high school, found 100 out of the 1,400 students who admitted freely they used marijuana. One said it was "as common as beer" at the school.

Sheriff Misterly said some Sacramento youngsters weekend in San Francisco in the Haight-Ashbury hippie district where "marijuana and LSD are peddled like chewing gum."

One 19-year-old he arrested for selling marijuana to high school students had four pounds, enough to make 14,000 cigarettes.

At San Diego, the appearance in class of a girl under the influence of LSD so startled Roger Bacon, a Madison High School teacher, that he initiated his own undercover survey. He gained the confidence of 35 admitted users.

The average guess is that 60 in any high school of around 2,000 in the area is using some form of narcotic. And all too often the user feels a missionary zeal to spread it.

The stuff is easy to get anywhere in the beach area, sometimes right at the high schools.

Some marijuana users bring it in lunch bags. (One San Diego teen-ager told of bringing LSD in an aspirin bottle and consuming it in class.)

Eleven of the 35 admitted going on to heroin.

More than 90 per cent said users indulge in "overfriendly" sex relations.

Most of them come from problem homes — such as divorced parents—and are in poor health because of their efforts to hide the usage.

At Chula Vista, many of 23 high school students arrested in a recent raid said they burned incense at home to cover up the marijuana odor.

Why is all this happening? The answers vary.

"With drugs, they're taking a time out from living," he observes.

Parental negligence is blamed by many. Peter Chang, district attorney of Santa Cruz County, laments that some parents "still think they can slap down a fifth of whisky every night and tell Johnnie not to smoke pot."

The continuing controversy over marijuana by adults has not been lost upon teen-agers.

"LSD can scare the hell out of you," concedes Dr. John H. Beatty of Oakland, chairman of the Committee on Alcoholism and Dangerous Drugs for the Alameda County Medical Association.

"But not marijuana. The kids who use it say it does no more to them than alcohol does to adults. I'm not sure I can refute that."

But Dr. William F. Quinn of Los Angeles, chairman of the California Medical Association's subcommittee on dangerous drugs, insists that marijuana causes acts of violence and perversion.

Dr. Victor H. Vogel, chairman of the Narcotic Evaluation Authority at the California Rehabilitation Unit, Corona, has this warning for teen-age smokers of "pot":

"Whereas 30 years ago with drug addicts only two per cent started the use of hard narcotics (heroin etc.) with marijuana, 95 per cent today started use of hard narcotics with marijuana."

LSD, just beginning to be reported in such places as Santa Barbara and Riverside counties, is less controversial.

Matthew O'Connor, head of the Northern California section of the State Narcotics Bureau, puts it bluntly:

"The only manufacturer in the world of LSD is Sandoz and Co. of Switzerland. It now has supplied 57 research centers in the United States with all they need for five years or more and has discontinued the supply.

"So the acid these kids get is picked up on the street, the product of half-baked chemical knowledge . . bootleg variety . . just bathtub gin garbage."

(Tomorrow: The difficult job of trying to solve the crisis. Enforcement is like a leaky sieve. The state opens an educational drive.)

PANTHER

queries to Seale.

Reading from a prepared text, Seale declared:

"Vicious dogs, cattle prods and increased patrols have become familiar sights in black communities. City hall turns a deaf ear to the pleas of the black people for relief from this increasing terror.

"The Black Panther Party for Self Defense believes that the time has come for black people to arm themselves against this terror before it is too late. The pending Mulford Act brings the hour of doom one step nearer."

Assemblyman Don Mulford, R-Piedmont, has introduced legislation (AB-1591) which would prohibit loaded firearms in a public place in any city, except for peace officers, certain guards, servicemen on duty, and persons who are using target ranges for practice shooting purposes.

A woman member of the group, who declined to identify herself, said she was protesting about Denzil Dowell, 22, a Negro burglary suspect who was killed by Contra Costa County sheriff's deputies in North Richmond on April 1.

"Denzil Dowell had only a wrench and a hammer with him, and they said it was justifiable homicide," the woman complained bitterly. "And they made no effort to save his life."

An armed male member of the group came up to her to whisper something. "I'm only telling them about Denzil Dowell," she protested. But she spoke no further.

After several speeches in the hallways of the Capitol Building and on the front steps, Seale snapped: "Let's get out of here!" The group marched away from the Capitol grounds.

"This is a problem for the attorney general to make some recommendation," said Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, who was chatting with newsmen when the Black Panthers burst in. He said the incident will no doubt make legislators more receptive to controls on the public display of firearms.

"I've always maintained firearms should be outlawed for everyone," declared Negro Assemblyman Willie L. Brown Jr., D-San Francisco. "My reaction to this is the same as if the Minutemen or any other semi-military group walked in with weapons."

Brown said he foresees "legislation along the lines of no weapons display in public at all." He warned, however, that the incident may spur some legislators to "take guns away from Negroes but not other groups."

"I'm for outlawing all guns — from police too," said Brown. "The bobbies in London get along without guns."

Mulford, author of the gun control bill, charged that the invasion was "a direct attempt to coerce me." He said he would seek to amend his bill, tightening its language, and including a provision to make it a felony to disrupt a legislative house in session.

Gov. Ronald Reagan, who was scheduled to lunch on the West Capitol lawn with an eighth grade class from Pleasant Hill, was detained in his office when word of the armed intrusion spread through the building. He finally appeared on the capitol steps just as the Negroes were leaving the lower steps.

"Americans don't go around carrying guns with the idea they're using them to influence other Americans. There's no reason why on the street today a citizen should be carrying loaded weapons," declared the governor.

Tiburon Woman's Condition Serious

Mrs. Helen M. Topham, 66, of 600 Ridge Road, Tiburon, was reported in serious condition today at Marin General Hospital after suffering a heart attack in her home yesterday at 7 p.m.

Tiburon firemen were called at 7:01 p.m. and gave first aid to Mrs. Topham before she was taken to the hospital.

Free Refuse Pickup ONLY In Tiburon

There is no free pickup of garbage or refuse throughout Southern Marin this week by the Mill Valley Refuse Service, but there is free rubbish pickup in Tiburon by that company.

A display advertisement in yesterday's Independent-Journal announced "Clean-Up Week, May 1 thru May 6, pickup every morning at 5:30, up to 3 cu. yds. Free."

That, however, is only in Tiburon, where it is annual cleanup week. Even in Tiburon, the free rubbish pickup is only on each customer's regular garbage pickup day.

The advertisement was placed by telephone by a man who identified himself as Romolo Iavarone, a partner in the company. However, Iavarone said he did not make the call.

Three Lots In Peacock Gap Auctioned Off

Three lots in Peacock Gap were auctioned by the county treasurer-tax collector for a total $20,510.08 to cover default payment on improvement bonds.

All but 10 feet at the rear of a lot at Chateau Place off Peacock Drive was purchased by Stone and Youngberg for $6,384.48. All but one foot of a lot on Riviera Drive was purchased by Robert Oswald at $5,672.11, and all of a lot on McNear Drive was purchased for $8,453.49.

Getting no bid today was a dedicated but undeveloped street known as East Railroad Avenue, south of San Rafael Canal, where $2,868.43 is owed on bonds. County Treasurer-Tax Collector Stanley J. Fontez said the assessment was evidently put on the street in error.

Rec Facility Report Slated

Fairfax Park and Recreation Commission last night set an adjourned meeting for 7:30 p.m. Tuesday to hear a report on general plan being prepared for the city by the county planning department.

Walter Horschler of the planning department will describe the plan at the meeting at the Fairfax Women's Club.

The commission discussed a proposed senior citizens' program but took no action pending a public hearing at 2:30 p.m. Saturday at the women's club.

The commission, already planning to sponsor Memorial Day observances, announced it would also sponsor Fourth of July celebrations. Commissioners Roger Gaetjen and Edward McGee were named committee chairmen.

Span Leaper's Condition Good

Gene Robens, 21, of San Francisco, who survived a leap from the Golden Gate Bridge Sunday, was reported in good condition today at Letterman General Hospital in San Francisco.

Lt. Roger Randall, information officer for the army hospital, said Robens' injuries consisted of a hairline fracture of the left arm and abrasions on the left leg.

He is the third person known to have survived a leap from the bridge in its 30-year history.

Nann Takes Oath On Sanitary Board

Raymond C. Nann of Corte Madera took his oath of office as a member of the Corte Madera Sanitary District board last night.

The board received a report on district expenses for the past three years, for study before budget discussions in June. A field trip to inspect the Ross Valley Sanitary District's sewer treatment plant in Greenbrae was set for Saturday at 9 a.m.

Pair Nominated For National Officers Posts

Two Marin County residents have been nominated for the national vice presidencies of two affiliated reserve officers groups by their California chapters.

Retired Coast Guard Capt. William A. Adam of Corte Madera was nominated for Navy-Coast Guard-Marine Corps section vice president of the Reserve Officers Association of the United States.

Mrs. Robert T. Paine of Novato was nominated for second vice president of the Reserve Officers Association Ladies Clubs.

Elected officers of the associations' California department at last weekend's meeting at Anaheim were Lt. Col. J. Paul Sibbitt of Novato, Air Force section vise president, and Cmdr. Clarence E. Spencer of San Rafael, Navy-Coast Guard-Marine Corps section second vice president.

Hearing Resumes On Dr. Chaker

Preliminary hearing of Dr. Henry Chaker, charged with grand theft from Marin County and three felony counts of presenting false claims to defraud the county, resumed in Marin Municipal Court today with testimony by two physicians.

The hearing began April 21 before Judge Peter Allen Smith and was continued April 24 until today.

The doctors, John G. Wierdsma and John T. Korn, testified today that they once had adjacent offices to that of Dr. Chaker at 1305 Grant Avenue, Novato, but never saw him perform "throat cultures." Neither did they see equipment for performing the cultures in his office, they said.

Dr. Chaker, a pediatrician, allegedly billed the county for 109 cultures at $4 each from June of 1965 to March of 1966, but never actually administered the treatment. The hearing is expected to conclude today.

Vase Tossing Caps Argument

The missile shattered against the hand of William Sterling, 41, of 121 Hillside Avenue, Kentfield, badly cutting it. Sterling was reported in good condition today in Marin General Hospital.

The fight in Mrs. Nadine Sterling's home at 311 Prospect Avenue, San Rafael, also involved the couple's step-son, Michael Wilson, 18, of the same address, police said.

Minor Injuries For Struck Boy

A 5-year-old Fairfax boy escaped with minor injuries yesterday afternoon when he was struck by a car on the 1800 block of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard in Fairfax.

Police said Manfred Lee Fasthorse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Manfred Fasthorse of 1822 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Apt. 4, ran in front of a car driven by Loren Anja of 351 Olema Drive, Fairfax, at 5:55 p.m. The boy was treated for bruises and a scraped knee at Marin General Hospital.

Injured In Fall

Joan M. Shields, 46, of 20 Corte Cordova, Greenbrae, was listed in fair condition at Marin General Hospital where she was admitted early today after a fall at her home. She had head injuries and a possible skull fracture, the hospital reported.

OBITUARIES

R. D. Irving, San Rafael, Dead At 58

Roland Duer Irving, KRON-TV executive and a leading member of Marin theater groups, died yesterday at a local hospital after a long illness. He was 58.

Iving, of 11 Wakerobin Lane, San Rafael, was historian for the San Francisco television station and formerly was promotion director. He was with the station 16 years.

He was serving a second term as president of the Ross Valley Players, and had been a leading actor with the Marin Shakespeare Festival and other theater groups. He had also served Ross Valley Players as publicity chairman and a member of the executive committee.

Born in New York, Irving was graduated from Yale University and served as a major in the Air Force during World War II. He moved to California in 1946 and had lived in Marin for 12 years.

He is survived by his wife, Jean Macdonald Irving of San Rafael, and by three sons, Geoffrey and Roland D. Irving Jr., of San Rafael, and Andrew M. Irving of Davis.

Memorial service will be at 4 p.m. Friday at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, San Rafael. Funeral and burial will be private. The family prefers contributions to Marin Aid to Retarded Children or to the charity of the donor's choice.

WALTER EVERHART

Private graveside funeral for Walter M. Everhart of Larkspur will be tomorrow at Golden Gate National Semetery, San Bruno. Memorial services will be held Sunday at Calistoga Presbyterian Church.

Everhart, 71, died Monday in a local hospital after a long illness.

A native of Bloomingburg, Ohio, he lived in California for 20 years. Former resident of Mill Valley, he and his wife, Christine, moved several years ago to Calistoga. Three months ago they moved to 965 Magnolia Avenue, Larkspur.

He is survived by his wife; a daughter, Mrs. Nancy E. Mey of Lynnwood, Wash.; a son, Harry T. Magill of Novato; two brothers, William Alfred Everhart of Granville, Ohio, and Harold S. Everhart of Columbus, Ohio, and eight grandchildren.

His family asked that contributions go to the memorial fund of Calistoga Presbyterian Church.

ETHEL HEWSTON

Ethel Hewston, 82, was found dead yesterday at her home at 119 Willow Avenue, Corte Madera, by neighbors concerned at not having seen her about.

Deputy County Coroner Keith Craig said Mrs. Hewston had been under a doctor's care but that an autopsy was to be performed.

Craig said worried neighbors looked through a window at 6 p.m. and saw Mrs. Hewston's body lying on a bed.

Her only known relative, Craig reported, is a nephew, John Lloyd Nelson of Menlo Park.

LUCILLE I. MILLER

Lucille I. Miller, retired real estate saleswoman, was pronounced dead on arrival at Marin General Hospital at 9:34 p.m. yesterday after collapsing at her home at 195 Nova Albion Way, San Rafael.

Deputy Coroner Keith Craig said death appeared due to natural causes, but an autopsy would be performed.

With Mrs. Miller, 66, when she collapsed were her husband, Charles, and her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Rauzon of Marinwood.

Miller tried mouth-to-mouth resuscitation without success, Mrs. Rauzon reported.

Mrs. Miller was born in Salt Lake City and grew up there. She lived most of her life in Los Angeles where she was in the real estate business. The Millers moved to San Rafael about three years ago.

Mrs. Miller is also survived by a son, Homer E. Gillespie of Los Angeles and another daughter, Mrs. Mary Lou Fries of Oakdale, Stanislaus County.

LENORE C. MOULIN

Private funeral for Mrs. Lenore C. Moulin of San Francisco, mother of Irving V. Moulin of Tiburon, was scheduled today at N. Gray and Co., San Francisco.

Mrs. Moulin, widow of Gabriel Moulin internationally known photographer, died at a San Francisco hospital Sunday.

She was a member of the P.E.O. Sisterhood, the Golden Gate Bowling Club, and Parent-Teacher Association. During World War I, she was a Red Cross worker.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Evelyn L. McManigal of South Pasadena, Los Angeles County, two sons, Irving V. of Tiburon and Raymond M. Moulin of Hillsborough, eight grandchildren, and 15 great-grandchildren.

Drath's Student Talk Draws Outside Critics

Philip Drath's scheduled speech at San Rafael High School tomorrow afternoon was sharply challenged and supported before the San Rafael Board of Education last night.

Drath, a San Rafael pacifist, recently sailed to North Vietnam with medical supplies and as a result his passport was revoked.

Glenn Bernd of 65 Alameda de la Loma, Ignacio, said he could not understand how Drath "could go into a high school in this county after giving aid and comfort to the enemy and that's whate he's done."

AN EXPERIENCE

Principal Alan Ellsberg said Drath's talk would be an "educational experience" for students, and a speaker with an opposing viewpoint could be heard later.

Drath's talk was scheduled as a student-sponsored program for students and faculty members at 3:15 p.m., after school hours, with attendance voluntary, he said. "It's not a captive audience."

Ellsberg reported that he got a telephone call yesterday that "200 members of the American Legion" would be on hand.

The event was intended for education, "not the involvement of placard carrying individuals," he said.

Board President Lawrence I. Kramer said it is better to have students hear all points of view and evaluate them critically than to insulate students from various viewpoints.

Board Member Paul L. Jones admitted that he had "mixed feelings," approving of students hearing all viewpoints but wondering if Drath "is the right man to do it."

As Bernd renewed his attack on John E. Cascone of 9 Elkin Court stood up and warned Bernd to watch his language unless he could document his statements. This drew applause.

There were several protests after Ellsberg said that the program was for students and faculty and not open to the public.

One man asked, "Am I to understand a citizen can't participate in an afternoon school discussion?" Mrs. Elizabeth G. Rowen, 360 Johnstone Drive, Marinwood, said, "I don't like to be excluded."

Supt. John F. Plank said that if the questioners showed up, he felt the students would try to accommodat them.

Ellsberg said that the student commissioner of assemblies, accompanied by Drath's daughter, Marilyn, and Charles Rosenbald president of the student body, proposed the program.

DRATH'S TOPIC

Drath will talk about his experiences in North Vietnam, he said. "He has appeared in other high schools," Ellsberg noted.

T. E. Fullmer, a member of the executive board of the San Rafael High School Parent-Teacher Association, said the board has objection to the program.

Two other speakers supported the scheduling of Drath's talk as "democracy in action."

Bernd wondered "where we'll end up it we let men like this speak."

"We hope students will learn to exercise critical faculties," Kramer said. "This is the intent of the policy."

Sanitary Budget Talks In Tiburon

Directors of Tiburon Sanitary District Monday night set an adjourned meeting for May 22 at 7:30 p.m. at the treatment plant to discuss the district's preliminary budget. George Bitter, accountant, said the budget will be prepared by that date.

The board decided to tell Richard M. Sims Jr. of Foghurst to hook into the sewer system by June 5. Neighbors had complained about Sims' septic tank

A health insurance for district employees will be raised from $30 to $45 per day, at a cost to the district of not more than $15 a month, the board agreed.

Finance Law For Elections Seems Lost

WASHINGTON (AP) — Jubilant foes of the presidential campaign financing law today predicted final victory by week's end amid vows by their principal opponent to continue the six-week floor battle indefinitely.

Sen. Russell B. Long, D-La., author of the election subsidy plan and its staunchest defender, suffered a stinging setback yesterday when the Senate voted 52 to 46 against his bid to overturn Senate repeal of the law.

The vote — fifth in a series that has stalled the Senate during the prolonged, often bitter debate — defeated a Long amendment that would have stripped from a pending tax bill the election subsidy repealer.

Sens. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., and John J. Williams, R-Del., principal backers of the repealer, said they're confident the Senate will pass the tax bill by the end of the week with the repeal rider on it.

SKIPPER, DISTAFF CREW ARRIVE WET

Skipper Lee Quinn, 40-year-old Los Gatos steeplejack who calls Sausalito his home berth, and his all-girl crew of nine arrive in San Diego Harbor, tired, wet and bedraggled—victims of a storm off Baja California which snapped the main mast aboard Quinn's 48-foot sloop Neophyte Too. Other than the broken mast, they reported yesterday, their only problem was nine seasick women. He has had 59 different women crewmen since starting his distaff sailing ventures in 1962.

Reed Board Ponders Employment Matters

Reed School District trustees devoted their meeting last night to employment matters.

Resignations of five teachers were accepted, and three new teachers were hired for next school year.

Resignations were from Mrs. Gail Swing, Granada School, Mrs. Phyllis Agnew, Granada; Mrs. Elizabeth Baker, Reed School; Linda Gordon, Belvedere School, and Mrs. Edith O'Mara, Bel Aire School, who is retiring.

Hired were Sandra Bogardus, to be assigned to the Granada School Beta cluster; Barry McWaters for team 2, Reed School, and Cynthia Tippett, primary teacher, Reed.

The board granted a maternity leave to Mrs. Corinne Greenfield, Bel Aire teacher.

Trustees discussed raises of about $12,200 for non-teaching employees and three proposals for raising teacher salaries, ranging from $24,000 to $54,000, but took no action.

Board members also talked about renewing contract services with Marin County schools office. No action will be taken until the May 16 meeting, according to Supt. H. Joseph Edgington.

Wallet, Cash Taken

Paul I. Nederman of 27 Maywood Way, San Rafael, told Larkspur police his wallet containing $500 in cash was taken from the pocket of his overcoat, which was on a coatrack, at Greenbrae Lanes Bowling Alley in Greenbrae Monday between 6:30 and 9 p.m.

Foreign Office Cuts 273 Jobs

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department's top administrative officer has ordered a two per cent cut in the department's employment ceilings here and around the world, it was learned today.

The order abolishes an estimated 273 jobs and apparently is aimed both at economy and at curbing what critics contend is overstaffing in the big foreing affairs agency.

Idar Rimestad, the new deputy undersecretary for administration who issued the order, described it as a "modest beginning" to try to turn around the gradual growth of the State Department's payroll.

Stricter Gun Law Gaining In Assembly

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Stricter gun and weapon laws in California won approval from an Assembly committee last night — but there's no change to traditional hunting weapons.

The new laws, pushed by State Atty. Gen. Thomas Lynch's office, were passed by the Assembly Criminal Procedure Committee and sent to the Assembly floor.

The major change would require handlers of "destructive devices" including bombs, grenades, rockets, missiles or above .60 caliber weapon to obtain a permit from the chief of the state's Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation.

Another regulation would require newly purchased out-of-state weapons capable of being concealed on one's person to be registered with police, unless the owners are licensed dealers, manufacturers or wholesalers.

In India tea plants are grown on terraced mountain slopes of up to 7,000 feet elevations. The higher the altitude, the better the quality. However, yield is smaller.

Test Due On Bagley's Tax Appraiser Bill

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A test in the Assembly Ways and Means Committee awaits a bill sponsors say will remove California's last vestige of political patronage — the controller's corps of inheritance tax appraisers.

The Assembly Government Organization Committee yesterday approved the bill by Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael. The vote sent it to the budget-screening Ways and Means Committee, which killed similar legislation two years ago. Democrat Alan Cranston, controller at the time, opposed the bill in 1965.

But this year, State Controller Houston I. Flournoy, a Republican, is supporting the bill, following through on a campaign promise to abolish the appraiser system. The appraisers are appointed by the controller to assess the value of the estates of deceased Californians. As payment, they receive a percentage of the estates.

Bagley's bill would provide that the heirs' representatives assess most assets. When the value can't readily be determined — jewelry or paintings, for example — the controller's office would do the appraisal.

Synagogue Building Program Is Opposed

Directors of the Marinwood Association last night voted unanimously to oppose the synagogue, classrooms and social hall planned by Congregation Kol Shofar at the end of Juniperberry Drive in Marinwood.

About 20 persons attended a meeting on the plans at the Marinwood Community Center. The plans have been approved by the county planning commission, but are yet to be heard by county supervisors.

SACRAMENTO SUMMARY

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

THE GOVERNOR

Said he thinks partisan politics is involved in Assembly refusal to agree to a compromise he helped work out to continue the state's medical care program.

Declared the Vietnam war should be pursued more vigorously, and said Democrats now seem to be following a policy long advocated by hawk-like Republicans.

Bills signed:

Vets — Provides $206,000 to continue educational aid program for veterans' dependents through June 30; SB 11, McAteer, D-San Francisco.

Notary — Revises rules for notaries public, including requirement that notary seals say when commission expires; SB 44, Grunsky, R-Watsonville.

Property — Requires any agreement to sell, purchase or lease property for longer than one year, or find a purchaser for property, must be in writing; SB 275, Danielson, D-Los Angeles.

THE ASSEMBLY

Bills passed:

Redevelopment — Permits creation of community redevelopment advisory committees composed of property owners within an area slated for redevelopment; AB 1198, Burton, D-San Francisco.

Victims — Requires a coroner to perform an autopsy on certain drivers killed in traffic accident to determine cause of death and whether alcohol or narcotics had been taken; AB 821, Bear, D-San Diego.

Bills defeated:

Assessments — Would have required all counties to have assessment rolls published in local newspapers; AB 527, Greene, D-Los Angeles.

THE SENATE

Rejected amendments opposed by the author to a bill liberalizing California's abortion laws; SB 462, Beilenson, D-Beverly Hills.

Bills passed:

Damages — Provides that heirs may recover damages for a deceased relative's physical and mental suffering in a case involving wrongful death; SB 402, Moscone, D-San Francisco.

Corporations — Gives a tax break to California corporations required to pay income tax on its parent firm's profits as well as on its own receipts; SB 339, Miller, D-Martinez.

Taxes — Establishes $5 penalty against a bank or corporation paying state income tax with a bad check; SB 519, Rodda, D-Sacramento. Sets $5 penalty against an individual paying personal income tax with a bad check; SB 521, Rodda.

Juveniles — Permits a district attorney — with court's permission — to participate in a juvenile court hearing under certain conditions; SB 38, Kennick, D-Long Beach.

Resolutions adopted:

Feather — Asks Congress to include Middle Fork of the Feather River in federal wild rivers system; SJR 16, Teale, D-Railroad Flat.

Resolution introduced:

Abortions — Requests State Public Health Department to submit an annual report to the legislature on California abortions; SCR 44, Beilenson, D-Beverly Hills.

Cut-Off Date On Medi-Cal Called Phony

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Reagan was on notice by majority Democrats in the Assembly today they won't be compelled into accepting a Medi-Cal finance compromise Reagan worked out with county supervisors and senators.

The Democratic Caucus said a Friday deadline set by the Republican administration to begin phasing out the Medi-Cal program was "phony."

The medical care program provides aid for more than 1 million low income Californians.

Democrats cautioned Reagan to "stop trying to intimidate us with artificial cut-off dates for essential programs." They told him to stop trying to influence legislators with attacks on their motives."

Meanwhile, a six-member committee of assemblymen and senators worked behind closed doors in an attempt to find a stopgap solution. There was no indication when they might agree.

They met late yesterday without success and then called another meeting.

Total government spending has risen in 13 years from $643 per citizen to $1,068.

Director For Joint Summer Program Named

Belvedere and Tiburon Parks and Recreation commissions today announced hiring of Louis Patler, 23, of Daly City, as director for a joint summer recreation program to be sponsored by the two cities.

The commissions are also seeking to employ two high-school girls part-time for the project at $1.50 per hour.

Mrs. Mimi Berticevich, co-chairman of the joint sub-committee for the youth program, said she and Rev. Llewellyn A. White, Belvedere co-chairman, selected Patler after interviewing five young people for the job. He will be paid $500 by each city for eight weeks of work, setting up and supervising the summer program.

Patler has a bachelor of arts degree in sociology from University of California at Los Angeles, and is studying for a master's degree at San Francisco State College. He has been a camp counselor, a playground and recreation director, worked with Amigos Anonymous in Mexico and with various church groups.

Known Criminals Linked To Hijack

LONDON (AP) — Three known London criminals have been identified through photographs by two guards and a truckdriver as the thieves who hijacked $2.1 million in gold bars from an armored truck Monday.

Scotland Yard said it was the first break in the nationwide search for the men who overpowered the driver and guards in a daylight ambush. None of the three wore a mask.

25 YEARS OF Star-Spangled Security FOR AMERICANS 1941-1966

Jimmy Durante has been a friend of Savings Bonds for a long time. He was already one of America's best-loved comedians when the Treasury Department issued the first Series E Bond on May 1, 1941.

Working hand-in-hand with a team of other volunteers from all walks of life, Jimmy has helped sell more than $150 billion in Savings Bonds to the American people. Bonds for education, new homes, retirement, emergencies. Dollars that grow to make your future more secure.

Teachers, Citizens Clash On Pay Hikes

Two teachers organizations made bids before the San Rafael Board of Education last night for pay raises, and a citizen study group presented a recommendation for no across-the-board increase.

The salary committee of the San Rafael Teachers Association asked a 3.5 per cent increase in the pay scale that would cost the elementary district $76,000 and the high school district $84,700. It also recommended an additional three-step longevity pay schedule estimated to cost less than $5,000 for 1967-68.

The Marin County Federation of Teachers, Local 1077, recommended a three-year program which would cost the elementary district $113,000 and the high school district $108,000 in 1967-68.

It also recommended reducing the salary steps from 13 to 12, which would cost $59,000 in the elementary district and $52,000 in the high school district.

The operating sub-committee of the Citizen Finance Advisory Committee recommended no "across-the-board" increases for 1967-68 because of tight budgetary conditions, inadequate reserves "and our desire to maintain present program levels as well as class size."

The board took no action on the recommendations last night.

The San Rafael Board of Education Also:

SABBATICAL LEAVES — Revised the sabbatical leave policy to permit sabbatical leaves for half year at full pay as well as full year at half pay.

COMPLAINT POLICY — Gave first reading to a proposed policy on hearing complaints against staff members, which rules that anonymous or hearsay complaints will not be acknowledged but an administrator may inform the staff person involved if he deems it appropriate.

NURSERY SCHOOL — Received an opinion from the county counsel's office that the district has the authority to allow use of district property for the San Rafael Cooperative Nursery at a nominal lease rate, without bidding. John G. Buresh, San Rafael attorney, has challenged the legality of turning the former administration building at San Rafael High School over to the nursery.

GIFTS — Accepted as gifts, two tumbling mats from Gallinas Parent-Teacher Association, $300 for a copying machine from Sun Valley School Parents and Faculty Club, and a new sound system for Davidson gymnasium from Davidson Junior High School Parent-Teacher Association.

NEXT MEETING — Adjourned until 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Administration Building, Third and E streets, when Supt. John F. Plank said preliminary budgets will be presented.

County Narcotics Bureau On KTIM

The proposed Marin County Narcotics Bureau will be the topic on radio station KTIM's Marin "Sounding Board" program at 9 a.m. tomorrow.

Discussing the bureau will be Thomas T. Storer, chairman of the county board of supervisors; Clifford S. Lund, foreman of the grand jury, Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos and Stanley Friese, assistant county school superintendent.

Questions telephoned by listeners will be addressed to the speakers. The program will be rebroadcast at 12:30 p.m. Sunday.

Jail Time Given In Burglary Case

Gerald D. Flowers, 23, of Santa Rosa, was given six months in county jail and placed on two years probation in Marin Superior Court Monday for second degree burglary.

Flowers had pleaded guilty to burglary of a building occupied by Edwin I. Powers, near Tomales State Park, on Feb. 10, 1966. Two other burglary counts were dismissed following his plea.

12 Teachers Added To San Rafael Staff

San Rafael Board of Education last night hired 12 teachers as staff replacements for the 1967-68 school year.

Hired effective Aug. 30 were: Margaret Baumgartner, intermediate grades, elementary district, $8,435 a year; Mrs. Lilita Callarman, Spanish-French, elementary district, $7,625; Gregory Danelz, social science, high school district, $7,220.

Paul Eisenberg, driver training, high school district, $6,005; Donald Meroff, boys physical education-science, elementary district; $6,410; Mes. Genevieve Miller, English-social studies, elementary district, $7,625.

Linda Pupos, intermediate grades, elementary district, $6,410; Roger Ramsey, intermediate grades, $6,815; Mrs. Marguerite Renna, music, elementary district, part-time, $4,165; Mrs. Frances Rhodes, primary grades, $9,650; Robert Vasser, intermediate grades, $6,815; and Lorna White, primary grades, $8,840.

The board also approved full time employment for 1967-68 for two current part-time teachers, Mrs. Jacqueline Jones, art-English, high school district, $6,005, and Eugene Oswald, mathematics, high school district, $8,435.

The board accepted resignations of four teachers, effective June 30: Mrs. Hanna Merians, foreign language, Davidson School; Daniel Murphy, social studies, San Rafael High School; Mrs. Irene Suppiger, French, Terra Linda High School, and John Thurman, mathematics, Terra Linda High School, and the resignations of two teachers now on leave, Mr. Reiko Hamai, second grade, Sun Valley School, and Mrs. Pat Simmons, girls' physical education, Terra Linda High School.

In other personnel actions the board:

Hired Edward Brandt, Martin Coman, Fred Husak, Daniel McLaughlin and Robert Storrs, substitute custodians, $2.31 an hour; Tony Jameson, custodian, $4,800 a year; Mrs. Ella Shore, secretary to head counselor, Terra Linda High School, $5,136 a year; and noon supervisors, Mrs. Marilyn Nadler, Short School, Mrs. Linda Slay, San Rafael High School and Janice Woods, Sun Valley School.

Granted Donald Fearis, social studies teacher, Terra Linda High School, leave for the 1967-68 school year, extended leave for the 1967-68 year for Mrs. Peggy Levy, first grade teacher, Coleman School; Mrs. Bernadine Angeli, sixth grade teacher, Sun Valley School; and Margaret Tierney, social science teacher, San Rafael High School; and approved a request from Charles Perkins, psychologist, elementary district, to withdraw his sabbatical leave for 1967-68.

Accepted the resignation of Mrs. Suzanne Furrow, noon supervisor, Short School.

Third baseman Eddie Matthews was with the Braves for 18 years.

Negro A Shoo-In As Gary Mayor

GARY, Ind. (UPI) —A 34-year-old attorney, a vocal civil rights activist, today appeared to be a shoo-in as the first Negro mayor ever elected in the United States by popular vote.

Richard Hatcher, councilman at large in this industrial city of 200,000—Indiana's second largest, yesterday won Gary's Democratic primary election.

In the past, a win in the Democratic primary assured the candidate of a win in the fall general election. Gary has never elected a Republican mayor. Traditionally the GOP in Gary and surrounding Lake County has been, at best, moribund.

'Hire A Veteran' Listings Needed

Employers with job openings were urged by Mayor C. Paul Bettini of San Rafael yesterday to list them with the local office of the California State Employment Service during "Hire A Veteran Week" which begins Sunday.

He said that young men returning from Vietnam as well as older veterans are looking for work in the community.

THE WEATHER FOR MAY

Maps prepared from U.S. Weather Bureau 30-day forecasts predict that Marin County will be on the dry side during this month but a little colder than average. Average daily high is 62 degrees according to San Rafael records and average rainfall is 1.06 inches. Last year the rainfall was only .22 of an inch for the month. (AP Wirephotos)

Quentin Employee To Retire To Open Spaces Of Europe

After 20 years working inside San Quentin Prison, it will be the wide open spaces from now on for Correctional Sgt. Mason J. Todd of San Rafael.

He and his wife, Margaret, intend to spend the next 12 months touring Europe in a camper-bus following Todd's retirement from prison service Sunday.

They will camp under the stars in different continental countries and spend the winter in Spain or on an island lapped by the Mediterranean.

And when the wandering is over, Todd and his wife will return to make their home once again in San Rafael.

He started at San Quentin in 1947 after 23 years service in the Army field artillery and in the Air Force.

Mrs. Todd is the coordinating librarian for the Novato Unified School District.

Todd's retirement is effective June 1 but his last day of work at the prison will be Sunday.

Controls Sought For Gallinas Canal

Directors of county service area No. 6, for development of Gallinas Canal, agreed Monday night to seek an ordinance revision to clarify uses and structures along the canal bank.

Directors are generally opposed to covered docks, but would allow an appeal to go all the way to the board of supervisors. It would also include such things as boat launching ramps in back yards.

'Golden Broom'

Fairfax has adopted a "golden broom" as the symbol for its Clean Up-Paint Up-Fix Up campaign scheduled May 28 through June 10. Elected co-chairmen of this year's campaign were Wayne Kovacs and Eleanor Harvey.

Bolinas Lagoon Plans For Studies Reached

Members of the joint subcommittee of the County Planning Commission and Marin Harbor District Board reached some accord on various studies on Bolinas Lagoon in a session at the Civic Center today.

The committee, created to coordinate the studies, agreed that the county planning department should make arrangements for and ecological study of the lagoon and the harbor district should invistigate a topographic study.

Norman T. Gilroy, architect for the harbor district, said the topographic study is basic to all others and should be started soon. Both the harbor board and county will review all proposals before they are ordered.

Albert Solnit of the county planning staff said the College of Marin biology station, under the direction of researchers, might be able to assist with the ecology study. The Marin Conservation League and the Golden Gate chapter of the Audubon Society have also offered help, he reported.

It was agreed that a member of the county planning staff will attend future meetings of the harbor district board.

Gilroy, upset with discussion of the lagoon before the planning commission Monday, said the survey proposals are in the discussion stage and not in a state of confusion as some concluded from the planning commission debate.

"We may have surfaced a little too early there," Solnit said, but emphasized that the public bodies must be kept informed.

400-Foot Radio Telescope Planned

JODRELL BANK, England (SS) — The man who runs the world's largest steerable radio telescope, the 250-foot dish antenna here, has announced plans to build an even bigger one.

Sir Bernard Lovell, who directs the University of Manchester's radio observatory with its several antennas, says his radio astronomy group is now designing a 400-foot dish, its surface to be kept true to within a quarter of an inch. The type of mounting has yet to be decided, but the cost is estimated to be about $12 million. There will be no protective dome.

Lovers Lane Spankings End In Jail

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A 17-year-old boy's story that he and his girl friend were forced to spank each other after being picked up in a lovers' lane has resulted in the suspension and jailing of a special policeman.

Deputy Chief Al Neldor said he suspended Donald J. Nicol, 35, a sewing machine repairman who is a special policemen booked him for investigation of kidnaping and sent him to jail.

Nelder said the boy told of being approached at 1 a.m. Sunday by a uniformed man at China Beach. The boy said he and his girl, who were parked in his car, were taken to a sewing machine repair shop, spanked each other, were taken back to China Beach and warned not to make any report.

Glenwood Area Pool Proposed

The Glenwood Home Owners Association last night considered establishing a recreational area with a pool, bath house, tennis and volleyball courts, said president Al Rodriguez.

The plan is an alternative, should similar plans by the Church of the Redeemer, at Knight and Castlewood Drives, fall through, said Rodriguez. The church also plans a clubhouse and parking lot adjacent to Knight Drive, and is ironing out legalities.

Cost of pool and courts would be about $40,000 and would be defrayed by a membership of 200 at $250 annually.

Cleaning junk out of the bay, improving homes, and eliminating a driving hazard at San Pedro Road junction were also discussed. Next meeting will be June 6 at 8 p.m. at the Church of the Redeemer, said Rodriguez.

Lagunitas School Trustee McBride Resigns Position

William G. McBride, defeated for re-election last month, last night resigned from the Lagunitas School District Board, and recommended that one of the two winners by appointed to complete his term, which expires July 1.

McBride lost in a three-way race for two seats to Glen E. Twitchell and Mrs. Judith L. Fullick.

Supt. Marshall J. McCuniff gave the board a staffing arrangement for 1967-68 calling for 22 teachers using 21 classrooms. McCuniff said today the 21-room plan will allow the district to get by with six instead of seven portable classrooms, but the plan will not work if enrollments grow in classes already crowded.

The board adopted a 178-school day calendar for 1967-68, opening Sept. 11 and closing June 14, 1968. Teachers will report Sept. 5 for pre-school orientation and workshops.

The Lagunitas School District Board also:

LEAVES —Granted a one-year leave of absence to teacher Mrs. Helen Rideout.

BUILDING — Appointed the Marin county counsel's office as negotiating agent for purchase of acreage adjoining Lagunitas School for school expansion.

ARCHITECT — Received preliminary architect's sketches for the expansion project showing area utilization.

MEETING — Called a special meeting at the school at 8 p.m. May 9 with the teachers to get their proposals on facilities and room arrangements of the new building for inclusion in the architects' plans.

Designs Ordered For Housing Unit

Marin County Housing Authority last night hired Hayes and Smith, San Francisco architectural firm, to design the proposed 20-unit development of low-cost housing for the elderly in Novato. Four other firms were interviewed for the project.

Commissioners authorized director Donald O. Stutsman to negotiate for purchase of 1.59 acres for the project at the end of Fourth Street.

A new appraisal of the 15.5-acre Hilarita housing site was asked by commissioners. Reed School District hopes to finance purchase of 10 acres of the site from a $1.6-million bond measure to be voted upon June 20.

Commissioners deferred to June 6 a request from the Boys' Club of Southern Marin in Marin City for an annual $2,000 subsidy.

Mental Health Center Bid Goes To Santa Rosa Firm

Marin County supervisors yesterday awarded contract for construction of the community mental health center at Marin General Hospital to Christensen and Foster of Santa Rosa, lowest of seven bidders on the job March 21 at $1,314,000.

Ground breaking ceremonies will be held at 10 a.m. next Wednesday.

The community mental health center cost will come to $1.5 million when furnished and equipped. Financing is through federal and state funds totaling nearly two-thirds of the cost, with the balance made up of county taxes, hospital district funds and private contributions.

Supervisor William A. Gnoss was absent yesterday.

The Marin County Board of Supervisors also:

AIRPORT — Called for bids at 10 a.m., May 22 on construction of the county airport at Novato, a county-federal project estimated at $340,000.

SOUTH SAN PEDRO — Agreed to consolidate the first and second phases of South San Pedro Road widening work in one project for the summer of 1968, thus deferring half a mile of work in the second phase set this summer to a 1.2-mile project next summer. The action was taken subject to approval by the San Rafael City Council.

WATER PROBLEM — Were satisfied with a report from J. J. and J. B. Downey, owners of the Point Reyes Station Water Co., on work being done to improve the system. J. B. Downey told supervisors that a 100,000-gallon reserve tank will be installed to replace a 20,000-gallon tank, and a higher site will be used to allow gravity flow throughout the system.

CARNIVAL — Granted an Rafael Elks Lodge 1108 permission to hold a carnival May 10-14 at the end of Dodie Street, east of San Rafael.

SENIOR MONTH — Declared May Senior Citizens Month in Marin.

CLAIMS — Refused the claim for $15,000 by Eunice Von Sluizer for loss of use of "Ark Edgar" on Corte Madera Creek due to removing sewer lines in preparation for the flood control project; refused the claim of Walter H. Schonfeld for $23,500 claimed from a slide on his property at 22 Eagle Rock Road near Mill Valley; rejected the claim of Elizabeth Haas of Woodacre for $15,000 for injuries received when the car in which she was riding collided with a county backhoe at Sir Francis Drake Boulevard and Nicasio Road Jan. 28.

APARTMENTS — Denied the request of H. W. Joslin for eight additional apartment units at McAllister Avenue and Sir Francis Drake Boulevard in Kentfield where there are now six units.

CANOEING — Agreed to take a canoe ride on Corte Madera Creek at noon May 25 at the invitation of canoist Elizabeth Terwilliger.

ADJOURNMENT — Adjourned in memory of Shirley L. Morgan of Inverness.

Rivers and streams in Kentucky total more than 14,000 miles in length.

Committee Okays Night Racing Bill

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A bill legalizing night horse racing — and revising California's race track laws for the first time since 1933 — has cleared a first hurdle in the legislature.

The Assembly Government Organization Committee approved the bill Monday, sending it to the Ways and Means Committee for study of the costs.

Backers predicted that Gov. Reagan would sign the measure, if the legislature approved it. Opponents disagreed.

Building Pemits

The Corte Madera Building Department issued permits for building estimated at $75,852 during April, compared to building estimated at $75,852 during March and $56,345 during April, 1966. The permits included two new homes.

PG&E Southern Marin Customers Rates Cut

Customers in southern Marin will benefit to a total of $236,000 from Pacific Gas and Electric Co. gas and electric rate reductions announced today.

The lower rates will be shown on June billings, but the difference between the new rates and the old will be refunded retroactive to Jan. 1. Refunds will average about 50 cents per residential customer, the company said.

The rates were approved today by the California Public Utilities Commission, which had ordered PG&E to prepare new schedules reflecting lower rates by El Paso Natural Gas Co., which supplies much of the California company's gas. The El Paso rate cuts were in turn ordered by the Federal Power Commission.

Electricty rates are affected in some areas because the gas is used as boiler fuel in PG&E's electric generators.

In addition, new PG&E schedules, as directed by the PUC, put such uses as apartment house area lighting, including parking lots, on residential instead of commercial schedules. The company said this will result in reductions for these users.

There was no explanation in the announcement of why the gas rate reductions apply only in certain areas.

Convertible Stolen

Theft of a 1966 Ford Mustang convertible, license SFA 935, was reported yesterday to Sausalito police by Gene B. Burkett, 121 South Street. The black and yellow car was taken Monday night, he said, from the carport of his residence.

Torrey Canyon Captain Blamed

MONROVIA, Liberia (AP) — A Liberian investigating board says the Italian captain of the supertanker Torrey Canyon was solely responsible for the wreck that spilled 36 million gallons of oil into the sea, fouling British and French beaches and doing enormous damage to marine and bird life.

The three-men board recommended Tuesday that the license of Capt. Pastengo Rugiati be revoked because of alleged negligence in "one of the major ship disasters in maritime history."

The 61,000-ton tanker drove onto a reef off the southwest tip of England March 18. Rugiati, 56, has been licensed by the Liberian government since 1958.

Novato Parks Plan

What projects should be taken off the proposed $2,230,000 Novato bond issue for parks was discussed last night by the Novato City Council Parks and Recreation Committee. No specific recommendation was arrived at, however.

TO WEST POINT — Peter Cole, 20, son of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Jack H. Cole of 335 Ironstone Court, Marinwood, has received a presidential appointment to the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, N.Y. A 1965 graduate of Terra Linda High School, he is attending University of California at Davis.

During World War I the Presidio of San Francisco was the site of an officers training camp.

Fairfax Police Stall Performance

Little old Fairfax almost went one up on San Francisco's topless last night, but police broke up a bottomless performance before it got started.

A 31-year-old woman, clad only in a green blouse, shoes, and coin purse, was nabbed by police in the nick of time as she started to enter a Broadway bar shortly before midnight. She told police she was going for a drink.

The woman was sent to Napa State Hospital and police withdrew charges of indecent exposure and being drunk in public.

LBJ Talks Produce Speedup In Treaty

PANAMA (AP) — President Marco A. Robles says his Punta del Este breakfast meeting with President Johnson has resulted in a speedup in the negotiations for a new Panama Canal treaty.

Barring "unforseen dfificulty," Robles said in a speech in Chiriqui Province Saturday, the negotiations will be concluded "sooner than you think." The text of the speech became available today.

Unification Plan Backed By Hub Trustees

The San Anselmo School District board last night asked the Marin County Committee on School District Organization to call an immediate election for unification of elementary districts with the Tamalpais High School District.

Ten teachers reported on the junior high school program at Red Hill School. The teachers explained that the program attempts to bridge the gap between elementary schools, where students have home room teachers, and high schools, where teaching is departmentalized.

The Red Hill program provides a "core" teacher to teach three periods with one class, teaching language arts and social studies and students have individual teachers for other subjects such as French or science. The "core" teacher acts as counselor.

The board will have a special meeting Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. at Red Hill School to discuss salaries.

THE UGLY DUCKLING: Fairy tale food for a child's party — the ugly duckling, a chicken stuffed with Wheat Honeys Cereal, turns into a beautiful swan when frosted with mashed potatoes and decorated with a paper tail, neck, and head. Serve him "swimming" in green beans.

Fairy Tale Food— The Ugly Duckling

The tale of the Ugly Duckling will come alive for the youngsters with this delicious creation which is so easy to fix.

THE UGLY DUCKLING

1 (2½-pound) chicken
¾ cup butter or margarine
¼ cup chopped onion
¾ cup chopped celery
1½ cups Wheat Honeys Cereal
½ cup light raisins
1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon ground black pepper
¼ teaspoon thyme leaves
1 (3½-ounce) envelope instant mashed potato
1 (9-ounce) package frozen French-style green beans

Rinse chicken inside and out under running cold water. Dry with paper towels. Using ¼ cup hot butter or margarine in medium skillet, cook onion and celery for 5 minutes. In large bowl, lightly toss sauteed mixture with Wheat Honeys Cereal and next 4 ingredients. Use to fill neck and cavity of chicken. Bring skin over neck opening; fasten to back with skewer. Bend wings under body. Tie legs together at ends. Place breast side up on roasting pan. Melt remaining butter or margarine and brush chicken. Roast in a preheated moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 1 hour or until tender basting again after 30 minutes. Place on heated platter; remove skewers. Prepare mashed potatoes and green beans according to label directions. Quickly spread potatoes over "duckling." Attach a swan-like tail and neck made from white cardboard! Makes 5 to 6 servings.

Tangy Sauce For Avocado

FIRST-COURSE AVOCADO

1 medium ripe avocado, chilled
1 tablespoon olive oil
½ tablespoon each cider vinegar and chili sauce
¼ teaspoon salt
Pinch of white pepper

Just before serving, cut avocado in half lengthwise; do not peel. Twist apart and remove seed; place each half on a bread-and-butter plate. In a small container, with a fork, thoroughly beat together the remaining ingredients; spoon dressing — 1 tablespoon for each —into avocado cavities. Serve at once with tealspoons for scooping out pulp and dressing. (A half-tablespoon now comes in a measuring-spoon set; if this isn't at hand, remember that 1½ teaspoons is the equivalent of ½ tablespoon.)

Date Nut Torte Has A Meringuelike Top

Meat Loaf with Tomato Sauce
Pared Baked Potatoes
Green Peas
Salad Bowl French Bread
Date Nut Torte Beverage

DATE NUT TORTE

¼ cup unsifted regular flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
¼ teaspoon salt
1 cup fine graham cracker crumbs
1 cup chopped pitted dates (not packed down)
1 cup coarsely broken walnuts
3 large eggs
1 cup sugar

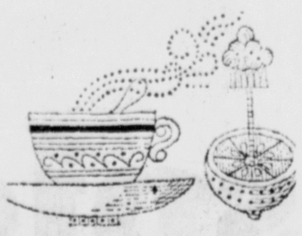
On wax paper stir together the flour, baking powder and salt; mix in graham cracker crumbs, then dates and walnuts. In a medium bowl beat eggs until thickened and lemon color; gradually beat in sugar so mixture is very thick and ivory color. Fold in date-nut mixture. Turn into a buttered square cake pan (8 by 8 by 2 inches). Bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven until a cake tester inserted in center comes out clean — about 45 minutes. Loosen sides of torte with a small spatula and turn out on wire rack; turn right side up; cool. Torte will have meringuelike top that will crack when cut; serve squares of dessert covered with whipped cream.

Freezing Ground Beef

When you're stocking up on ground beef in the freezer, have it packaged in two ways. Some of it should be in patty form so it can be cooked, without lengthly thawing, as hamburgers in quick time. The remainder should be packaged in amounts to suit other needs of the family, like 1½ to 2 pounds for meat loaves, spaghetti or pizza sauces.

For meat loaves the ground beef will need to be thawed, preferably in the refrigerator. For sauces and mixtures that call for browning the meat, it may be started in its frozen state.

Make Mother The Queen With Raspberry Apple Crown Pie



Oddly enough, the Greeks did have a word for a holiday which is the counterpart of our Mother's Day. We don't have the Greek letters on our typewriter to tell you exactly what it was, but ancient Greek celebrations honoring Cybele as mother of the gods far pre-date the relatively modern observation of Mother's Day on the second Sunday in May.

We don't know what the Greeks served at their Mother's Day feasts, but we can't think of a more appropriate or delectable dessert than today's Raspberry-Apple Crown. This fetching concoction combines several very modern time-savers — pound cake, raspberry gelatin, and those versatile canned pie-sliced apples, which you may have used only for pies up till now — and it's ideal for make-ahead preparation so Mother has her whole Sunday free to enjoy family visits.

Pound cake squares set on the diagonal in a spring-form pan create the "crown" outline. The filling is a creamy raspberry gelatin mixture enhanced with the taste-tempting apple slices Thanks to their special processing, these canned pie-sliced apples don't turn brown on exposure to air so they're well suited, also, for the special garnish topping the crown. To complete the treat, "ice" the sides with whipped cream before serving.

RASPBERRY APPLE CROWN

1 6-oz. pkg. raspberry gelatin
2 cups boiling water
1½ cups cold water
¾ cup sugar
1-lb. 4-oz. can pie-sliced apples, well drained
1 10-oz. loaf pound cake
1 cup (½ pint) heavy cream

Dissolve gelatin in boiling water. Stir in cold water. Set aside ¾ cup gelatin in skillet. Chill remaining gelatin until thickened. Add sugar to gelatin in skillet. Add pie-sliced apples and simmer about 5 minutes or until apples are glazed. Drain off any remaining syrup. Dice apples, reserving 12 slices for garnish. Cool. Cut pound cake lengthwise into 7 slices. Cut each slice in half. Whip ¾ cup heavy cream until stiff. Fold cream and diced apples into thickened gelatin. Place pound cake squares on bottom and around sides of a 9-inch spring form pan to form crown. Pour in gelatin mixture. Chill until firm. To serve, remove sides of pan and place on serving dish. Whip remaining cream and spread on sides of crown. Garnish with reserved glazed apple slices.

Chocolate Mallow Bars Sure To Go Over With The Family

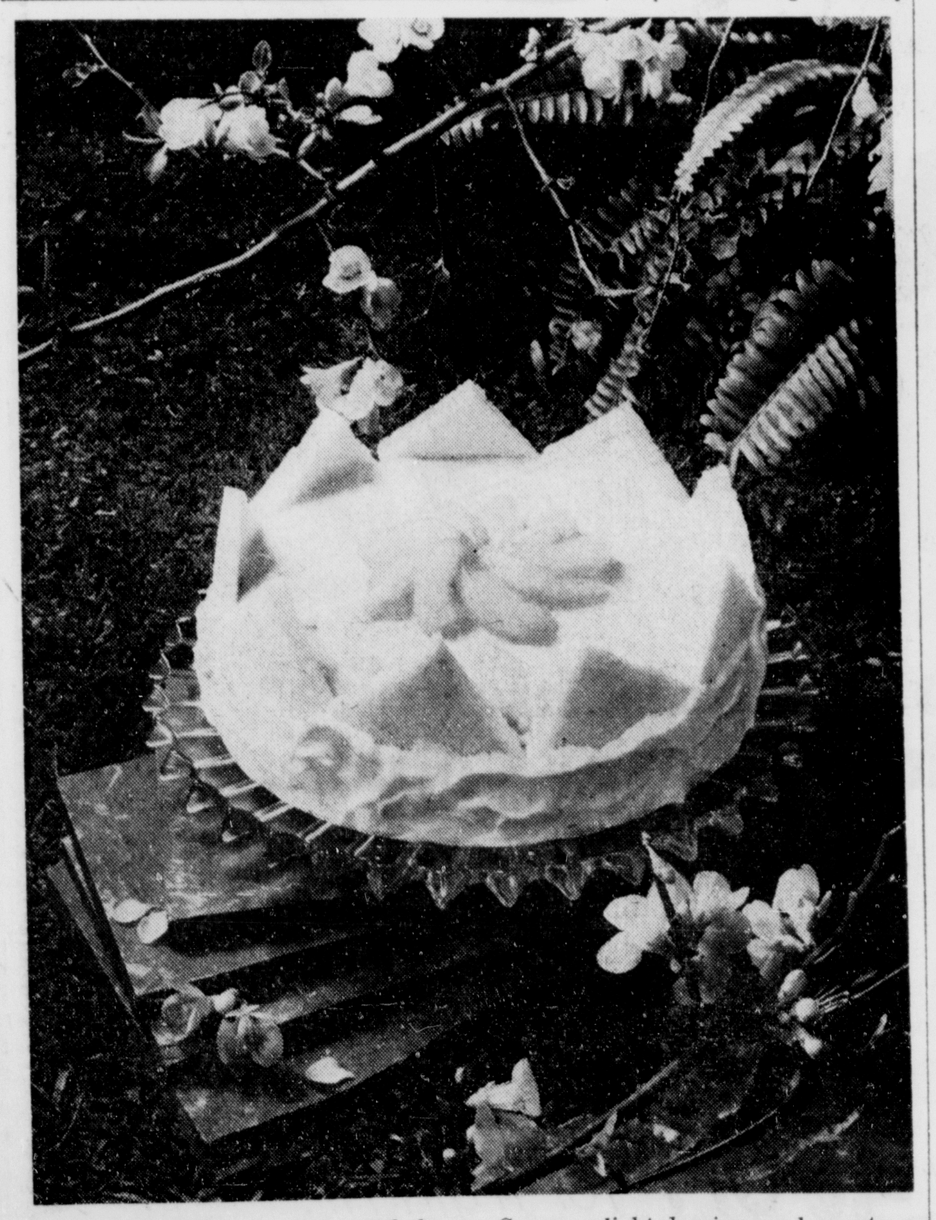
Chocolate Mallow Bars

CHOCOLATE MALLOW BARS

1 cup sifted regular flour
⅓ cup unsweetened cocoa
½ cup each butter or margarine and granulated sugar
2 large eggs, separated
½ cup each firmly packed light brown sugar and finely chopped walnuts

On wax paper, sift together the flour and cocoa. Cream butter and granulated sugar; thoroughly beat in egg yolks. Spread this rather thick dough over bottom of ungreased baking pan (11 by 7 by 1½ inches). With clean beater, beat egg whites until they hold soft peaks; spread over dough; sprinkle with walnuts. Bake in a slow (325 degrees) oven until topping is lightly browned and cake tester inserted in center of cookie dough comes out clean — about 25 minutes. Partly cool on wire rack; cut into bars. To have topping soft, serve the same day cookies are made.



MAKE MOTHER the Queen of the May with this Raspberry-Apple Crown, a light, luscious and easy-to-fix combination of canned pie-sliced apples and raspberry gelatin.

Sausalito Nips Swap Of Purity Parking Lot

An offer by Trident Productions to swap the parking lot on its Purity Store property for city-owned waterfront land behind the store was put on ice but not permanently frozen by the Sausalito City Council last night.

Trident had suggested that the city would thus acquire without cash outlay land for a small park on Bridgeway at the foot of Princess Street, while Trident would acquire property more easily developed.

The proposal was turned down last week by the Sausalito Planning Commission.

Negative opinions on the plan were submitted to the council by three consulting firms; Whitlow, Hoffman and Albritton, civil and structural engineers; William Spangle and Associates, planners; and Lawrence Halprin and Associates, landscape architects and planners.

Objections raised included possible interference with extending Humboldt Avenue around the congested Bridgeway and Princess Street intersection; blocking of views by development on the waterfront; and cost to the city of developing the small park.

Peter Wells, appearing for Trident Productions, told the council the planning commission had judged as a formal application what was merely a suggestion. All that was desired, he said, "was for someone from the city to sit down with Trident and see if an exchange could be worked out or how the property could be developed."

He told the commission Trident had been appearing before the city since September and that lack of a city planner "does burden the applicant."

The council voted 4-to-1, Councilman Jan Paul Dyk dissenting, to hold the matter open, and instructed City Mgr. George M. Patterson to discuss with Trident methods of developing the area.

Dyk feared that Trident might use the waterfront parcel for over-water parking on a deck and said this would create a bad precedent.

The Sausalito City Council also:

CLEAN-UP — Acknowledged a suggestion by Louis Wilkinson that semi-annual house-to-house trash collection by Bay Cities Refuse Service be made a quarterly.

HOLY GHOST — Received an invitation from IDESST to its May 14 Holy Ghost celebration.

DOG GROOMING — Declared a dog grooming business to be a proper use in neighborhood commercial zones.

PLANNING — Denied complaint by Harold Thomas Rogers of 103 Portofino-Riviera Apartments that the council and planning commission lacked the time to guide waterfront development, and rejected Rogers' suggestion that an advisory committee be formed to assist planners and councilmen.

SURVEY — Authorized a survey to be paid for with gasoline tax revenues, of the Block bounded by Harrison and Buckley avenues.

OLD YARD—Ruled out immediate action on sale of the old corporation yard on B Street, because of potential as a parking lot.

HORSESHOES — Sent back to the recreation commission for more details proposed $250 installation of two horseshoe pitching courts at South View Park, after councilmen questioned the demand and Councilman Alexander R. Imlay asked how it could cost $250 "to drive four stakes."

FIRE ESCAPE — Authorized a $400 rear fire escape for the city library.

GLEN COURT — Postponed "no parking" decision for Glen Court until the fire department tests the street for maneuverability in an emergency.

WATER TANKS — Voted to ask Marin Municipal Water District to replace the 30,000-gallon tanks on Beacon Hill and Mar Vista with larger tanks.

TRAFFIC SIGNS — Approved "yield" signs for San Carlos Street at Caledonia Street, and on Glen Drive at Cazneau and Filbert avenues, and approved a stop sign on Spencer Avenue at San Carlos Avenue.

OCCUPANCY — Adopted Ordinance 676 requiring certificate of occupancy before furniture and equipment may be installed in a commercial structure granted a use permit.

BRIDGEWAY BIDS — Set May 31 at 10 a.m. for opening bids on Phase I of widening Bridgeway, estimated at $148,000.

IN MEMORIAM — Adjourned in memory of Shirley L. Morgan, yacht harbor owner killed in Sausalito traffic last week, and Frank French, Sausalito police sergeant in the 1940s and '50s, who died in Honolulu last week.

Board Rules Out Poverty Audit

Marin County Supervisors yesterday ruled out an audit of funds the county used for the War on Poverty, as requested by the Marin Economic Opportunity Council.

The board chose only to support a letter written by County Administrator Alan Bruce to council directors, saying the county would be liable for any financial errors.

The council owes $48,873.89 to the county for running poverty projects during the recent delay in council operation. Council directors voted not to pay the sum, as asked by the county, until an audit was made.

Mrs. Martha Arfsten, coordinator of the Office Careers Program at the College of Marin, will speak on the secretarial work experience program to the San Rafael Kiwanis Club tomorrow noon at the Mission Inn.

Traffic Tag Charge Hiked In Sausalito

The county administration on July 1 will boost its charge for handling Sausalito's traffic tickets from the present $18,000 to $24,000.

The bad news was given by City Mgr. George M. Patterson at last night's meeting of the city council, which promptly passed a resolution objecting and told Patterson to write a letter of protest.

How effective that would prove appeared doubtful after Patterson explained that the county receives all fines and deducts its charge before remitting to the city.

Patterson said Asst. County Administrator John F. Barrows claimed that it costs the county $67,000 a year to process traffic tickets from all jurisdictions, and it receives only $41,000 in payment.

The city manager said he had been unable to get a satisfactory explanation of the county's high cost. He told the council that 89 per cent of Sausalito's fines were paid promptly without need for follow-up letters.

All the county has to do, Patterson said, is match the ticket returned with the duplicate on file, refile both, and deposit the money in a special fund.

The higher charge, he said, would raise the county's share of ticket revenue from 21 to 27 per cent. He said these charges vary throughout the county from 11 per cent in San Anselmo to 30 per cent in two other cities.

There is a bill before the legislature that would make charges in Marin a uniform 27 per cent. The council went on record as opposing that bill.

Ramparts Magazine Sued By Keating

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Edward M. Keating, founder of Ramparts Magazine, filed suit for $215,028 yesterday, contending he loaned that to the publication but was never repaid.

Keating was dismissed by the magazine's board of directors last week. The suit was filed in San Francisco Superior Court.

Judge Ends Hearing On Death Row Inmate

SA NFRANCISCO (UPI) — A petition to save condemned murderer Edmund Earl Reeves, 28, Bakersfield, from the gas chamber was under submission today by U. S. District Judge William Sweigert.

The jurist ended two days of arguments yesterday on Reeves' petition in which he claimed he was inadequately represented by counsel and entitled to a new trial.

Reeves was convicted of shooting Floyd Parson, 59, March 24, 1965, and wounding another man when they caught him stealing fuel oil from an oil field near Bakersfield.

Sweigert granted Reeves a stay of execution March 20 — eight days before he was to enter the gas chamber.

Deputy Atty. Gen. John Jurphy argued a reversal of the death sentence would be an injustice to Reeves because "it would deprive him of his lawful reward." He said it also would be an injustice to the people of Kern County, the defense counsel and the trial judge.

Court - appointed attorney Fred Campagnoli countered, however, that Reeves "didn't have adequate representation" when he was represented in 1965 by attorney James Meeks, Bakersfield, who also was appointed by the court.

"No judge on the record presented to him could have had any choice but to impose the death penalty," Campagnoli argued. "Reeves' personal family history nor even his story of how he shot two men in self-defense was brought out."

Duplexes Hearing

An application for a planned unit development of 16 duplex dwellings on approximately 90,000 square feet at Butte Street and the Highway 101 right-of-way will be heard today by Sausalito Planning Commission at 8 p.m. in city hall. The permit is being sought by Robert Hayes of Miramonte Investment Co.

Rattlers Killed In Fairfax Area

There are rattlesmakes on Manor Hill in Fairfax and George Gray of 126 Ridge Road has the evidence.

Gray reported to the Independent-Journal that he killed three rattlesnakes Sunday and "heard or saw" several more in the hill area.

One of the snakes was nearly three-and-a-half feet long, he reported. The hill lies between Camp Tamarancho and the Cascades and should not to be confused with the Oak Manor area, he noted.

West Marin Water Board Hearing Set

The North Marin County Water District board last night set a public hearing on formation of an improvement district in its West Marin annexation for 8 p.m., May 24, at the West Marin School in Point Reyes Station.

The district would pay for engineering studies on water sources, system improvements and possible purchase of private water systems in the annexed area.

Jerome B. Gilbert, district manager, estimated the cost of this study at $30,000 and the board set a maximum of 25 cents per $100 assessed valuation on the tax rate to be levied in the district for the purpose. This rate would bring in about $13,000 per year, Gilbert said.

Gilbert recommended that district employees be given a flat 5 per cent salary increase to match that made by Marin Municipal Water District the first of the year. The board deferred action on this until its May 15 meeting. The regular meeting would be on May 16, but chairman Arnold Heise could not attend on that date, so the meeting was moved ahead one day.

Sea Scouts In Sailing Regatta

Sea Scouts from Marin Sea Scout Ships 20, 55 and 1 will cross San Francisco Bay May 27 and 28 to take part in the 15th annual Ancient Mariner Regatta at Alameda.

An estimated 800 Sea Scouts will compete in sailing ship skills such as navigation, signaling, seamanship, and rigging a breeches buoy. The regatta is co-sponsored by the Coast Guard and the San Francisco Bay Area Council, Boy Scouts of America.

Advisers for the three Marin ships taking part are Ray D. Friberg, Ira L. Fuller, and Ronald N. Craig.

'I Watched My Son Become A Soldier'

EDITOR'S NOTE: When the son of Dr. and Mrs. John A. Walz of Vancouver, Wash., recently entered the armed forces, his mother Pat realized how little she — and most likely, other mothers — knew of what confronted her son as he prepared for war. She decided to find out for herself, and to report to other mothers, by visiting the places where young men are turned into soldiers.

By PAT WALZ

VANCOUVER, Wash. (AP) — "Please go in the service and let some nice drill sergeant take care of you," I told my 19-year-old son when he hitchhiked home from college, got picked up by a Las Vegas mobster and had to testify at his trial.

"Come on, boy, how about the military where a kindly old sergeant can watch over you?" I said this when our son had a 9½-foot sailfish stuffed and mounted, but forgot to figue on the shipping and duty charges.

But when he finally took my advice, I was unprepared. I had to find out all I could about it. What better way than to see for myself?

The first step is the Armed Forces Examining and Entrance Station.

I spent an afternoon at the station with more than a hundred of your sons, and while I wouldn't say they were riotously happy, neither were they long-faced with misery.

A feeling of resignation hangs in the air as thick as the cigarette smoke that curled around the overhead fluorescent lights, and there was a tone of inevitability in the confident voice of the sergeant who called out names.

THEY WAIT FOR their preinduction physical; they wait for their mental test — this generation feels very much at home with multiple choices — and they wait to be sworn in.

Finally it is time. Twelve boys are led into the paneled office of the commanding officer where they form three rows and silently face the desk behind which an American flag is silhouetted against the blinds and reflected in the desk top. A Marine captain stands beneath a picture of the President of the United States while the commanding officer and a sergeant stand to one side. I stand on the other side of the room and try to look at all your sons at once.

THE CAPTAIN QUIETLY says, "Attention" and everyone of us in the room stands straight and tall. I think some of us feel taller in these few seconds than we will ever feel again. It is a moment of pride. It is a time when I offer a short prayer for each one of your sons who stand there so young and serious.

Later, at the airport, before the plane leaves for Ft. Lewis, Wash., and basic training, families and friends clutter around the rookies.

One young man, a slight dark-haired fellow in a maroon sweater, had come from the wheat country of Eastern Washington. He was alone, and this is a time when a boy can feel very alone and scared, but he must not show it, for now he is a soldier. I was furious with his absent family and friends.

The girl friends present cried. Their tears are acceptable. A MOTHER's are not. Mothers must do their crying in private.

At last it was time for the plane to leave. The boys walk out the door and onto the loading ramp, acting nonchalant as they try to fill their own image of a man going to war.

I put my hand on the arm of a mother next to me, then turned and walked to the car. I had a ticket for parking too long. I swore obscenely — words I had never used — and headed toward home.

Our sons arrived at the Reception Center at Ft. Lewis scared probably, apprehensive certainly. I followed them, so I could see. But no matter what time, day or night, they are offered a hot meal and assigned a freshly made bed.

During the next four days they are given 45 different items of uniforms, worth $380; their choice of six different styles of haircuts, all quite short; take tests for two days to determine their aptitudes and skills, and receive the feared and fabled shots, or inoculations.

CHOWLINE . . . Pat Walz finds food good at Army Training Center, Fort Lewis, Wash.

A BIG BLACK AIR GUN, reputed to be painless, is used for the inoculations. While it may be painless, as they say, I thought it more fearsome than the M14 rifle. I asked for a shot of some kind to see if they hurt. I was politely refused and offered a cup of coffee instead. I accepted.

I suppose the best thing that happens to our sons during these first four days at the Reception Center is the $25 they receive on the second day. This is not a gift. It is part of their first month's pay, but to a kid who is broke, scared and lonesome, $25 can be motherhood, the flag and his favorite dog. It's for morale and necessary for a 90-cent haircut.

During the next eight weeks of basic training, the drill sergeant is the U.S. Army to our sons. He does not spend time chatting with them in a jolly, comradely fashion. He commands them and he chews them out and he does everything within the limits of reason and decency to teach them how to save their own lives and how to take another's life.

HE IS WITH our sons every minute, day and night, from the minute he meets them at the reception center until graduation eight weeks later. How many of us could stand this exposure to one son, let alone 55 of them?

Everywhere I looked — barber shop, night firing range, mess hall, everywhere —there was papa drill sergeant with his platoon.

Once I saw a platoon without him and I felt as though I had really discovered something. The trainees were doing calisthenics and no sign of the drill sergeant. Then finally I saw on the ground a Smokey the Bear hat and there was the sergeant, doing the calisthenics only doing them better. I gave up.

Our boys spend 79 hours on basic rifle marksmanship; 14 hours in individual tactical training; 8 hours on first aid and many additional hours learning about close combat, combat firing, hand grenades, the infiltration course and intelligence training.

One day I went through the chow line with your sons, sliding my partitioned tray along the counter, watching with disbelief as the food was piled on. For one lunch we had creole meatballs, potatoes dripping with butter and more creole sauce; green peas, green salad with a delicious french dressing, two slices of bread, and a huge piece of frosted white cake. 3,600 calories a day and this is due to be increased.

AFTER LUNCH I inspected one of their barracks. There were two long rows of double bunks, covered as I had expected with the same old ugly Army blankets. But not a wrinkle in sight on any of the beds.

Lined along each wall were foot lockers and upright lockers that serve as closets and seats for the boys. Boots and shoes were precisely arranged under each bunk. I sneaked a few looks in corners and under bunks, trying to find dirty sock or a dust ball or anything that looked like home, but all I saw was my snoopy face reflected in the shiny floor.

The barracks was neither friendly nor homey but it was efficient and businesslike and reflected the whole atmosphere of basic training.

At last, the eight weeks of basic training ends, soon after the infiltration course, where three machine guns, in locked positions, fired live rounds 44 inches over the ground while our sons crawled on their bellies under the snapping bullets.

When the trainees finally completed the infiltration course, they were happy but not exhilarated. They didn't carry their drill sergeant off the field on their shoulders. They quietly and quickly got into formation for the march back to their barracks.

NOW THEY were soldiers.

NEW TRAINEES . . . Raggle-taggle bunch of young men line up in formation at Fort Lewis Reception Center. Issue of uniforms, GI haircuts and first real exposure to military discipline are in store.

DURING SEVENTH WEEK OF TRAINING . . . S/Sgt. James Sheckler, a Fort Lewis drill sergeant, leads his platoon to the bivouac area. The trainees are shaping up into soldiers.

Marinites Back From Hawaii And Rotary Golf Tournament

By MOLLY MARIN

A number of Marinites have returned from Hawaii where they attended a golf tournament with the golf chapter of the San Francisco Rotary Club. Chester MacPhee Jr. of Ross won the Pan American perpetual golf trophy. Attending the matches and staying at the Royal Lahaina, the Royal Hawaiian and the Mauna Kea were Dr. and Mrs. R. M. Dougherty and Mr. and Mrs. Chester MacPhee Sr. of the Marin Country Club Estates, the Chester MacPhees Jr. and the Floyd Gilmans of Ross, Messrs. and Mesdames William Rainey and George Rowse of San Rafael, James Collins of Greenbrae, Irving Moulin of Tiburon and Alfred Pinther of Kent Woodlands.

A DEBUTANTE TEA is being held today by Mrs. Raymond Thayer at her Culloden Park home in San Rafael in honor of her grandniece, Mary Patricia Milliken, who will bow at the Marin Debutante Ball in December. Mary is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Milliken of San Anselmo. Among the guests are the Marin Charitable Foundation committee which sponsors the debutante ball, the honorary ball sponsors and many of the other sponsors. Pouring tea are Mesdames Paul Foster Sr., Samuel Abbott, Edgar Alexander of San Francisco, William Schoenfeld, Jordan Martinelli Sr., George Stephens, Harrison M. Leppo and Frank Baumgarten.

Mrs. Thayer and Mary's mother, Mrs. Milliken, will receive guests, assisted by Mesdames Samuel Archibald and Wallact Scott. Mrs. Archibald is president of the Marin Charitable Foundation this year.

AMONG MEMBERS of the consular corps assisting with the Gourmet Gala at the Cannery in San Francisco tomorrow evening is Mrs. Ian Landon-Lane of Belvedere. The wife of the New Zealand consul will help staff the New Zealand booth, where the gourmet item is lobster tails. Mrs. Robert Godron of Belvedere is decorations chairman — a more than usually tough task as the Cannery is still under construction. She has organized a group of Junior League members, Spinsters and sorority girls from the University of California, who spent the weekend painting and getting the booths in readiness. The Gourmet Gala is sponsored by the auxiliary to the International Institute.

A LUNCHEON and swimming party was given Sunday by Dr. and Mrs. H. Corwin Hinshaw at their home on Belvedere's West Shore. The party for 22 guests honored the Hinshaws' daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gregory Patent, who have recently returned to the Bay Area after living in Friday Harbor, Wash. The Patents and their 10-month-old son, David, are now living in Berkeley. Both Dorothy and Greg are continuing their studies in marine biology, working for their doctorates.

FAST-PACED DRAMA

On stage for yesterday's short but powerful drama "The Fumed Oak" are students of Redwood High School who presented the Noel Coward production for members of the San Rafael Improvement Club. Members of the cast were Bob Little, Mollie Squires, Christine Gerhard and Marcia Steadman. The play takes a punch at humdrum middle class living and was directed by Joe Wadlington of the Redwood High drama department. (Independent-Journal photo)

Males Deluge Mail With Advice On How Best To Treat A Wife

DEAR HELEN:

You said you didn't expect "a deluge" of responses to your request for male advice on how best to treat a wife. (Note from H: I was so-o-o- wrong! The deluge is still descending, and I humbly apologize for misjudging you romantic fellows.)

Please don't use my name as it would seem kind of weird to my friends who think of me as an old married hand. I don't consider 20 years of marriage to the most beautiful girl in the world as "old hat." It has been a real pleasure. Young man, if you want to say that after 20 years, pay attention to these tips:

First consider the three areas of marriage problems: money, sex, in-laws.

Money: Turn your paycheck over to the little woman for six months. Make a record of how she manages it. Then you take over the house finances for six months. Take inventory. Whoever has done the best job is the treasurer for life.

Young man, if you wind up treasurer, don't be a cheapskate or a spendthrift. What you spend on yourself, also spend on her. When you get a few bucks ahead, give it to her to blow on herself. Take her out fancy once in a while. Remember, half the jackpot belongs to her, as she is the one who keeps you healthy and in working condition. You're a selfish thief if you think otherwise.

Sex: It's the toughest thing in the world to get adjusted to. Nobody's a pro at the beginning. Be patient. Little gal, don't be afraid to tell him what troubles you. Maybe the same thing troubles him. I don't think there is any such thing as a frigid marriage partner, but only one who is repulsed by an overbearing lover. Sex is meant to be beautiful, tender and filled with love. That is the magic formula. Don't forget any of the ingredients.

In-Laws: Young man, you took one of their most priceless possessions away with you. Can you blame your in-laws if they look critically at how you are treating her? Remember and understand, for you, too, will someday be an in-law. JOHN

DEAR HELEN:

I always let my wife help in the responsibility of paying bills. It gave her a sense of "belonging." Even though she made mistakes, I rectified them unbeknown to her.

I bought her jewelry (doesn't have to be expensive, it's the gesture that counts); cosmetics in pretty containers, lingerie.

Shower your wife with compliments, young man. Tell her she's beautiful, and also a good cook, and, most of all, tell her she has shapely legs. Always open the car door for her.

I could write a book on the things my wife and I enjoyed in our happy life together.

Funny—when a man gets a woman who comes up to all the things he dreams of in a woman, he loses her. My wife died of cancer five years ago, at the tender age of 45. — H. B. D.

DEAR HELEN:

Steps to guarantee happy wives:

1. Be kind to them, as you are the ones who must live with them.

2. Don't make promises you can't keep, while you are absorbed in reading or watching TV. Be alert to the questions thrown at you.

3. Treat your wives as politely as you would a friend or coworker.

4. Listen to their latest bits of gossip—go ahead and admit you enjoy it. For that matter, listen to the little women—they know what's best for you. — WARREN

DEAR READERS:

Male recipes for happy marriages to be continued on Friday. I always knew men had romance in their souls, but I never realized before how many would come flat out and admit it. Thanks, fellows — you're great!—H.

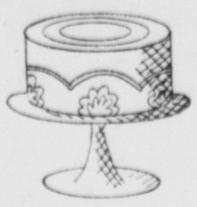
'A Happy Birthday' Market Day Theme



"A Happy Birthday Market Day" — an invitation to join in the celebration of its twentieth anniversary — is being extended by the Northgate Group of the Marin Art and Garden Center in Ross for May 17.

A king-size birthday cake aglow with candles, pastel bunting, ballons and spring blossoms will decorate the food and gift booths and will transform the Center grounds into a gala party scene for this annual event.

Northgate members in pastel-striped pinafores will offer homemade and gourmet delicacies from Marin kitchens and larders, handfreezer fresh ice cream and fresh fruits and flowers.

NORTHGATE'S famous lunch and a lilliput lunch for small fry will be served under the trees. The sidewalk cafe will offer coffee and pastry and party guests will find heartier fare at the snack bar.

Birthday cakes, candles and cup cakes will be a special feeture of the bakery booth along with a variety of homemade pies, cakes, cookies and rolls.

A sable boa, fine china and crystal, objets d'art on the Silent Auction stage, "what-nots" at the White Elephant Booth, seedlings, potted plants and bonsai and an opportunity to "sit" for a portrait will be among the attractions. Jewelry and hats, books, children's toys and novelties, and fresh lemonade will be offered.

Market Day runs from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m. All proceeds benefit the Marin Art and Garden Center.

Mrs. Donald Smith of Mill Valley and Mrs. Peter Curtis of Belvedere are co-chairmen and on the steering committee are the Mesdames Frank Brown, Frank T. Dettner, John C. Cummings, Norman J. Paterson and Dan J. Sweeney Jr. Mrs. S. Robert Farley is designing the party decor and Mrs. Melvin J. Duncan will be the "voice" of Market Day. Mrs. Philip Nathan and Mrs. Raymond J. Zanzot are finance chairmen and Mrs. Jay Hale, publicity chairman.

STACKING shelves and counters of booths are the Mesdames George Goheen, Murray MacKall, Laurence Dashiell, Mert Hipsley, John Buresh, Henry D. Eddy, W. M. Harris and Peter Skaer.

Also the Mesdames Leroy Page, Rudolph D. Lang, James E. Egger, Edgar J. Garbarini, Walter M. Meier, Edward M. Detrick, J. Ralph Martindale, Dennis M. Day and George E. McKenna. Booth chairmen also are Mesdames Frank A. Barsocchini, George Geramoni, Ralph Alden, Henry Skinner, Jackson Bennett, J. Calvin Ewing and Richard Tyler.

Newlyweds To Reside In Kentucky

Kathleen Lackey and Clyde Caudill were united in marriage at the Lutheran Wedding Chapel in Carson City on April 15. The Rev. Fred Rutkowky performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Lackey of Novato, was given in marriage by her father. She wore a street length dress of white lace over satin. Her only attendant was Mrs. Dennis Morland of Novato, wearing a turquoise suit.

Dennis Morland was best man for the bridegroom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Caudill of Hyden, Ky.

The bridegroom is serving with the U.S. Air Force at Hamilton Air Force Base. He attended Cumberland College in Williamsburg, Ky. The couple will reside in Hyden upon his completion of his tour of duty.

The bride was graduated from Novato High School and attended College of Marin. She is employed with McGraw-Hill Publishing Co. She is the sister of Denis Lackey.

Peggi Landreth Is Engaged To Marry George W. Collom

The engagement of Peggi Janette Landreth and George Walker Collom was announced by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Finley C. Landreth of Novato.

The sister of Tom and Tim Landreth, she is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard P. Cavender of San Francisco and the great granddaughter of Herbert Cavender of Salinas.

The bride-elect will be graduated from Terra Linda High School in June and plans to attend College of Marin in September. She is employed part time in her father's store, Bud's Northgate Sporting Goods.

George, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph D. Lynch of Novato was graduated from San Rafael High School. He has served three years in the Navy and is employed with Rapco Vending Co. He is the brother of Mrs. Peter S. Montoya and Tommy G. Collom of Novato. His grandfather is George W. Collom of Glenhaven.

The couple plan to be married next year.

Terra Linda P-TA Presents Honorary Life Membership

Miss Flora Mancebo was the recipient of an Honorary Life Membership awarded to her by the Terra Linda High School Parent-Teacher Association.

Miss Mancebo was born in Newcastle. She attended UC at Berkeley, graduated with a BA, majored in Spanish. She then attended San Francisco State, Scaramento State, and College of Notre Dame and majored in counselling and guidance.

Her first year of teaching was at Half Moon Bay Union High School teaching physical education, Spanish and social studies.

Her career was temporarily interrupted by the war when she joined the Navy for three years and was stationed at Hunters College, Atlanta, Ga., and Opalocka, Fla., where she worked as a link trainer instructor. After her Navy duties she returned to Half Moon Bay Union High School for 15 years. She put on plays and musicals, and also became director of the agricultural division for the San Mateo County Fair for two summers.

Miss Mancebo arrived at Terra Linda High School in 1961 and has taught Spanish, math and English there. Her activities have included being advisor for Future Teachers Club, counsellor in charge of all scholarships and counsellor of students.

Miss Mancebo has spent the last three summers in Mexico. Again, thinking of others, she was an adult advisor to Amigos Anonymous in Tarimaro. Flora's hobby is gardening, and while at Tarimaro she initiated the truck farm by starting gardens in the patios of the barrio. In 1965-66 she brought Berta Garcia back from Tarimaro to live with her in Santa Venetia. This year Berta is working for a family in San Anselmo, but spends weekends with the teacher.

Art Club Section Plans Go-See Tour

The Civics and Conservation Section of the Outdoor Art Club, Mill Valley, will have its last meeting of the season Monday at the club house at 11 a.m.

Weather permitting there will be a go-see tour, sandwich bag in hand, says chairman Mrs. Thomas E. Welsh. Otherwise members and guests will be introduced to the book "That Quail, Robert" at the clubhouse.

Flower Demonstration Set For Church Group

Young Wives of the Episcopal Church of Our Saviour in Mill Valley will present a flower arrangement demonstration tomorrow from 9:30 a.m. to 11 a.m. in Hammond Hall.

The demonstration, which is open to the public, will be presented by a local florist shop. A small donation includes refreshments and baby sitting, and two prizes will be awarded.

Fads are for people-not dogs

STOP FOOLING AROUND...FEED RED HEART DOG FOOD

SO COMPLETE you don't have to feed your dog anything else

Don't fool with your dog's health by feeding "fad foods" like dog burgers and so-called all-meat rations. Instead, feed Red Heart, the complete dog food. Made by a meat processor who knows precisely the meat protein your dog needs, Red Heart also has the vital vitamins and minerals to make its formula complete. The so-called all-meats short your dog on these essentials. And most burger-type products contain 20% or more added sugar, while Red Heart has none. Remember, with Red Heart—the complete dog food—you need nothing else. So don't take chances with fad foods. For the life of your dog, feed Red Heart.

BACON, BEEF OR LIVER

TOCCATO CONCERT FEATURES LUTE

Stanley Buetens will perform three groups of works for solo lute, and a group of lute quartets with three of his students, on the fourth of the "Toccata Series" presented by the Mill Valley Center for the Performing Arts Sunday at 8 p.m. at the Mill Valley Golf Clubhouse.

Madrigal And Motet Program

The Lord's Prayer as set to music by Bach, Schuetz and Stravinski will be a highlight of a program of madrigals and motets presented Saturday by the College of Marin music department's madrigal group in Olney Hall at 8:30 p.m.

Four of the college's music majors, Leslie Retallick, Donna Phares, Miranda Forwood and Sylvia Hyde will sing excerpts from the chamber works of Vivaldi.

The ensemble of 15 singers will be conducted by Dr. S. Drummond Wolff, music director. The concert is free to the public.

San Rafael Bands Concert On May 12

The San Rafael High School band and stage band will give a concert in the school auditorium at 8 p.m., May 12, with proceeds to go to lesson scholarships and music camp tuitions.

The band was rated superior by the California Music Educators Association and received a command performance at the music festival at Napa on April 29, according to band director Terry Summa.

Watercolor Exhibit

An exhibition of watercolors of Marin scenes by Sausalito artist William F. Dohrmann is being held daily except Sunday throughout May at the Colony Frame Shop in Sausalito.

Military Committee Is Formed

George T. Lawrence was named chairman of the committee. Other members are Clifford S. Lund, Thomas J. McGruder, Fred Saccone and William Try. Col. Harry Shoup, commander of the 78th Fighter Wing at Hamilton Air Force Base, was named an advisory member.

The chamber directors went on record against an Assembly bill which would cut the Northern California share of state highway funds.

The board saw a preview of the downtown parking survey recently completed by the chamber for the City of San Rafael. The survey results will be presented to the city council May 15.

Ferry Boat Panel

Thomas T. Storer, chairman of Marin County Board of Supervisors, will be on a panel discussion debating "Should We Bring Back the Ferry Boats to San Francisco Bay?" over radio station KABL, Oakland, Sunday at 10:30 p.m.

Founded in 1222, Padua University, Italy, was famous as an early medical school.

Greased Pig To Be School Carnival Feature

A greased pig chase and a dunking machine will be among the features of a May Carnival to be held at Katharine Branson School from 3 to 7 p.m. May 12.

Profits from the carnival, sponsored by the school Service Chest, will go to an American Friends Service Committee project to build homes for farm labor families in Tulare County.

A rock band, U.S. Male, will play from 4 to 5:30 p.m. and classical guitarists Harry Alto and Glori Jacobson will play from 5:30 to 7 p.m.

Booths sponsored by school organizations will include a pony ride, art work, used books, soft drinks and snacks.

Planners Seeking Sign Law Review

The San Anselmo Planning Commission Monday night asked the chamber of commerce to review proposed changes in the sign ordinance and report to the commission June 19.

The commission granted Michael F. Brady and Ronald O. Ulrich a permit for an auto repair service at 640 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.

THIRD SECTION — SAN RAFAEL, CALIFORNIA, WEDNESDAY, MAY 3, 1967 — 23

SURVIVES SPECTACULAR ACCIDENT

Jeanne Theresa Serman of Mill Valley was readied for dash to Marin General Hospital after surviving a spectacular auto crash just north of Golden Gate Bridge. Her car hit the center guard rail and sailed 200 feet through the air, barrel-rolling four times before ending upside down at the side of the highway. Mrs. Serman of 429 Green Glen Way escaped with bruises of arms, hands and back and was reported in good condition today at Kaiser Hospital in San Rafael. (Independent-Journal photo by Jim Kean)

Hot Terra Linda Issue For Firemen

By ROBERT STREBEIGH

The San Rafael Fire Commission tomorrow will try to come to grips with a nettlesome problem: whether to accept the offer of Terra Linda's volunteer fire department to help put out fires in the Terra Linda section of San Rafael.

The sharpest of the nettle's thorns appears to be civic vanity, with San Rafael unwilling to believe its efficient, professional fire department needs its little neighbor's willing help.

LACK OF AGREEMENT

The commission will meet at 7:30 p.m. at city hall, with this the only item on the agenda.

The long-smouldering issue erupted Jan 2, when fire did $40,000 damage to the Gerald L. Thompson home at 915 Del Granado Road while Terea Linda firemen stood idle for lack of an agreement between the two communities.

Terra Linda Fire Chief George Walser asid his department could have reached the blaze five minutes before the San Rafael Department.

Alarmed by the implications, 204 residents of the area, petitioned the San Rafael City Council for action.

The petition deplored "inadequate fire protection provided... for our domiciles" and requested the council's "immediate attention and action."

San Rafael Fire Chief Vance Trivett told 100 concerned residents attending the Feb. 2 meeting of the fire commission that the city has a well-manned station across Highway 101. He said, "Yet some people want us to call on Terra Linda, which has one paid fireman . . . This doesn't make much sense."

Harry M. Williams, chairman of the fire commission backed Trivett in doubting the value of an agreement with Terra Linda Community Services District's volunteer department.

Terra Linda CSD Director Richard Less, who served as his district's fire commissioner, said yesterday he knew of no invitation to appear at tomorrow's meeting of the San Rafael commission.

STANDING IDLE

Less said it was frustrating for a San Rafael resident half a mile from the Terra Linda fire station to have his house burn while he could see equipment standing idle. "It's frustrating to our people, too, not to be able to help," he said.

Terra Linda residents at the February hearing urged that an arrangment be set up whereby the Terra Linda department would respond to any fire nearer to it than to San Rafael's No. 3 fire station, even though it was within the city limits. The San Rafael department would then relieve the Terra Linda firefighters on arrival.

There is a mutual aid agreement among fire departments in the county, but it provides only for a second department to respond when asked to do so by the department in whose territory the fire starts.

ADMISSION CHARGE FOR MUIR WOODS

Muir Woods National Monument will charge admission for the first time starting approximately June 15, the national park service announced today.

The charge, only for persons 16 and older, will be 50 cents. The annual $7 "golden eagle passport" sold by the service for admission to all national parks also will be valid throughout the year.

Revenue from admission charges will go into the service's water conservation fund to provide recreation facilities.

Drath Speech For San Rafael Students, Faculty

Peace advocate Philip Drath's speech to a San Rafael High School assembly Thursday afternoon will be for students and faculty only, not open to the public, Principal Alan S. Ellsberg said today.

Drath's talk, on his visit to North Vietnam, is one of a series sponsored by the student body, Ellsberg said. Last week, John Hemingway, son of author Ernest Hemingway, talked to the students about his famous father. Next week, the assembly is to hear Dr. Patrick Gleeson, described as "an apologist for the hippies."

The series is being arranged by Shari Liggett, student body commissioner of assemblies.

WAR ON POVERTY GETS MARIN AID

Supervisors Vote $10,000 From Property Tax Funds To Keep Children's Centers Open

By RICHARD LYTTLE

Once again, a lag in federal funding has put a War on Poverty project in Marin in jeopardy, and once again, county supervisors have come to the rescue, this time with $10,000 loaned from property tax funds.

The board was told at mid-afternoon yesterday that there was no money to pay teachers in the Marin City and Novato Children's centers and $10,000 was needed at once. County auditor-controller Michael Mitchell said the only other choice was to close the operation.

COMPLEX SYSTEM

The children's centers, set up under a complex system of financing with federal War on Poverty, state education money and county tax dollars, ran out of funds because of delay in federal and state payments. Mitchell said the county loan of $10,000 would be repaid as soon as the federal and state funds came in, he reported.

Supervisors John F. McInnis and Ernest N. Kettenhofen were extremely reluctant to make the loan because of an earlier problem with the War on Poverty in Marin.

REFUSES TO PAY

The Marin Opportunity Council, which runs the "war," has refused to repay a $48,873 county loan, also granted to carry things through while federal red tape was being untangled. The council said there will be no repayment until there is an accounting of where the money was spent.

Complicating all this was the fact that Supervisor Thomas T. Storer also serves as a director of the Marin Opportunity Council and was the person who made the council motion not to sign the repayment voucher until the expenditure is documented.

Kettenhofen moved that the $10,000 to the children's center not be paid until there is a gurantee of the payment of the $48,873. Chairman Storer ruled this motion out of order, saying two funds were not connected.

ACTS ON WHIM

Kettenhofen charged that the council had acted on a whim and irresponsibly. McInnis wondered what assurance there was that the $10,000 would be repaid, and why the county always ended up "on the short end of the stick" to cover state and federal fund failures.

Supervisor Peter H. Behr talked long to smooth things over, saying the board could not harm the children's center out of pique.

The board finally voted 4-0, with Supervisor William A. Gnoss absent, to transfer the $10,000 from county reserves.

Child Abuse Charge For Hostess, 26

A 26-year-old restaurant hostess, Donna Campbell, was arraigned in Marin Municipal Court yesterday on a charge of abusing her 2-year-old daughter by leaving her unattended at home.

Judge Peter Allen Smith scheduled plea entry for 1:30 p.m. Friday.

Mrs. Campbell, of 1441 Casa Buena Drive, Corte Madera, was arrested by Sheriff's Juvenile Inspector Harvey Teague yesterday afternoon. She was later released without bail by Judge Smith.

Officers said neighbors reported Lisa Ann Donovan was being left alone for periods as long as from 7:30 p.m. to 11 a.m.

Real Fire Engine Rides Scheduled

Corte Madera youngsters who want to ride on a real fire engine will have their chance during Fire Service Day open house at the Corte Madera Fire Station Saturday from 2 to 5 p.m.

Fire Chief Frank L. Nelson said the volunteer fire department, sponsor of the open house, will provide the children with free photos of them in the fire engine, wearing toy fire helmets and badges also to be provided by the department.

Firemen will demonstrate their firefighting equipment and conduct tours through the station.

Coast Pollute Control Policy Wins Approval

By DAVID DIETZ

A broad plan to control pollution in a 100-mile stretch of Pacific Ocean from Tomales Bay to Pescadero Point in San Mateo County won general approval last night from industry, civic officials and wildlife groups.

The policy also covers the western half of Tomales Bay, Bolinas Lagoon, Drakes Estero, Limantour Estero and tidal portions of coastal streams.

As presented at a public hearing in the Marin County Civic Center, the plan establishes water quality standards and asks a combined local, state and federal effort to protect flourishing recreation and commerce along the coast.

JULY 1 DEADLINE

An 11-member task force of health officials and engineers prepared the policy to meet a requirement under the federal Water Quality Control Act of 1965. A plan for pollution control in San Francisco Bay already has been approved.

Statewide policies must be in federal hands by July 1.

In spelling out maximum ingredients for good water quality, the task force sought to protect an area which it said accommodates millions of bathers and sport fisherman annually, and supports about 20 per cent of the state's commercial fishing fleet.

WASTE DUMPING

The group allowed for "reasonable and necessary" dumping of wastes except in rocky areas along the coast and in kelp beds, which it said are necessary to fish survival.

To control pollution by industry and municipal sewers, the plan suggested new restrictions be placed on discharge and that agencies which use the ocean for dumping be required to submit reports on corrective programs.

The task force cited sewage from the City of San Francisco, Bolinas Public Utility District, Coast Guard, Marin dairy waste discharges, and the sanitary landfill operated by the Daly City Scavenger Co. as significant polluters.

SOME BANS

Along with improved federal, state and local policing of pollution by industry and municipalities, the report recommended legislation to ban waste discharge from pleasure boats and commercial craft.

Among speakers at the public hearing were Hugh Dougherty, a member of the Stinson Beach County Water District Board, Dan P. Norris of Brown and Caldwell engineers, who are drawing the Bolinas-Stinson sewer plan, and Sherman Smith, general manager of the Bolinas utility district.

SOME ASSISTANCE

Dougherty urged financial support to small districts in which recreational facilities are provided, yet which must follow the pollution control guidelines established by the regional board.

Norris won assurance from the regional board that it would decide was strict requirements for bacteriological content would be in the area.

Smith told the board an interim report on the Bolinas-Stinson sewer system would probably be delivered when the water group considered the task force policy May 18 in Oakland.

'Schools '67' For Mill Valley Bonds

A citizen committee urging passage of Mill Valley School District's $3.5-million bond measure on June 13 will operate under the name, "Schools '67," chairman John H. Cutler said today.

Cutler also announced appointment of Mrs. Fred B. Larkins as vice chairman. Serving on the committee are Mrs. Jerrold Ladar, Mrs. Lincoln B. Shea, Robert E. Murphy, Bruce E. Wrisley, James Lamb, Joseph K. Marshall, John C. Rittger, John L. Larson, Robert Rudebeck, and trustee William P. Everts Jr.

Strawberry Dredge Plan Bond Backed

Residents in a special zone of the Strawberry Recreation District voted 28-5 yesterday to authorize a $23,000 bond issue to dredge the Strawberry Channel which fronts 19 homes.

Next step in the dredging project will be to obtain approval from the Bay Area Conservation and Development Commission and the Army engineers, according to Stephen H. Kaufmann, attorney for the district. Kaufmann said it is hoped the dredging can start in June or July, so the channel can be used for boating this summer.

Kaufmann said this would be the second re-dredging of the channel, which was originally carved out in 1951. The special zone was formed as the dredging would not benefit the entire district. The bonds will be an obligation only on residents of the zone.

Driver Fined, On Probation

Jack Charles Hanny, 55, of 7 Homestead Boulevard, Homestead Valley, was fined $289 and placed on two years probation yesterday in Marin Municipal Court for drunken driving. Larkspur police arrested him Feb. 8 on Highway 101.

Rudy Vincent Wooley, 32, San Francisco, was fined $230 and placed on one year's probation for drunken driving. California Highway Patrol arrested him on Main Street in Sausalito April 24.

Joseph Edward Helbert, 47, of 120 D Street, San Rafael, was fined $174 and placed on a year's probation for the same offense. He was arrested by the patrol April 25 on Highway 101.

Rec Commission Has Busy Agenda

Tiburon Parks and Recreation Commission has an ambitious agenda for tomorrow's meeting at 8 p.m. at city hall.

Items for discussion include proposed uses for the Northwestern Pacific Railroad right-of-way when abandoned, landscaping of a public works headquarters which has not yet been selected by the city, the non-tidal canal to be located on railroad property, appointment of a committee to discuss waterfront problems with the Tiburon peninsula advisory committee, a city ordinance regulating trees on city property, and the problem of surplus deer on Angel Island.

SERVING ALL OF MARIN COUNTY

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

Marin Should Support Sonoma State College

On May 26, Sonoma State College will stage a "Forum for the Future," a forum which we hope will focus more attention from Marin County on the important role that the college is playing in the North Bay community.

Within the state college system, Sonoma State was established to serve the North Bay counties of Marin, Lake, Mendocino, Napa, Sonoma and Solano. In a sense, this means that Sonoma State College at Cotati is Marin's state college.

Actually, about 25 per cent of the student body at Sonoma State comes from Marin. Projections indicate that both the number of students and the proportion from Marin County will increase in the years ahead.

Since the college opened seven years ago, its ties with the general public in Marin have been remote. Only the Marin students attending college and their immediate families and friends seem to appreciate the importance of the educational institution to the north.

The college is now preparing to observe dedication week about a month from now. Dedication week will be highlighted by an all-day Forum for the Future on Friday, May 26, with nine panel discussiions on public problems of the North Bay. Each of these panels will include a qualified participant well known in Marin public life.

Panelists will include all five Marin supervisors; President-Elect William K. Ramstad of College of Marin, and Councilmen M. E. Silva of Novato and Earl J. O'Grady of Larkspur.

Assisting the panelists will be several distinguished citizens from Marin with special knowledge of subjects under discussion:

Norman B. Livermore, administrator of the State Resources Agency; Assemblyman William T. Bagley; Michael Conway of the Marin 3-R School; Carney Campion of the Redwood Empire Assn., and Byron W. Leydecker of the Redwood National Bank.

The forum will look ahead to the problems which the six North Bay counties will face during the last third of the 20th Century.

We hope the Forum will prove successful, not only in providing an opportunity to define the problems and outline solutions but also in strengthening ties between the Marin public and the state college.

Closer ties will make it possible for the college to better serve Marin County and for the Marin public to better appreciate the role of Sonoma State in the North Bay community.

Birds Of The World

What do these three birds have in common—the Golden Eagle, the English Sparrow and the Herring Gull? They are among the handful that have an almost worldwide distribution.

English Sparrows sun themselves and scrap over bits of food in the gardens of Marin, among the orchards of England's pleasant countryside, and among the crowded squatter huts of Hong Kong. Seemingly equally at home in all three places.

Herring gulls flock the harbors of most of the world, though they are often migrants. And Golden Eagles grace the skies of the world, but are an endangered species.

AFFAIRS OF STATE

New California Exposition Needs Lot Of State Support

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Once the administration of Gov. Ronald Reagan decided that the new California Exposition was a feasible project, it is wasting no time in going ahead.

The $33 million project will be dedicated May 22 at a public ceremony, to be held on the site, which is located off the freeway just north of the state Capitol.

Already, some funds have been made available by the division of highways for construction of entry to the grounds. Work has started on some of the projects to be included within the complex.

There have been questions as to whether the new exposition will be ready for an opening date in the fall of 1968. The date is a little more than a year away, and although much remains to be done, E. R. Lemmon, general manager, is confident there will be an opening on schedule.

THE DEDICATION will be a big event in the annals of California history, primarily because the whole idea of the new exposition is to make it pay for itself.

For more than a hundred years, the state treasury has been subsidizing the California Fair and Exposition, which is known as the old state fair, in past years to the extent of up to a million annually.

Even the planning for the new exposition, which is directed toward "operating in the black," with a usable all-year grounds and spaced-out attractions, marks a step of progress away from the antiquated idea that the state owes its citizens free entertainment. Whether the new fair pays off or not is a matter of speculation at the present time, but with the ideas and plans being carried out in their first stages, it should not only operate in the black, but actually make a profit.

THIS MAY TAKE a few years to achieve, but entertainment experience indicates an organization making at least a small profit will result from the legislature's action in eliminating the old fair, and making financial provision for the new.

Much of the same philosophy could be applied to the 75 district and county fairs scattered through smaller communities of the state.

Most of these are subsidized by the state, and are a drain on the taxpayer, in a time when taxes are reaching a confiscatory level, and funds are needed more for other functions of state government.

FEW PEOPLE HAVE any objection to fairs as such. They are a part of the great American scene. Objections arise to financing the shows from the public coffers. The theory that fairs should pay for themselves, at least, is growing more popular every day.

Some rather astounding figures as to patronage of the new exposition have been developed by economic researchers.

They estimate some 51 million people will visit the exposition during its first twelve years of operation.

And also that the operation will have a direct and indirect effect on the economy of the state to the extent of nearly one billion dollars.

WITH THESE PROSPECTS in view, the new venture needs all the support from the citizenry it can get for the next few years, as it will take that long and maybe longer to make it an established, paying proposition, and an acceptable substitute for the state fair which has more than 100 years of experience in playing to the public.

TRY AND STOP ME

By BENNETT CERF

IN AN OPENING game of the Big Ten's football season last fall, a ponderous guard crashed into an opposing halfback and the two tumbled to the greensward. Then the guard recognized his opponent and he exclaimed happily, "Hey, Jack! Haven't seen you since high school. Isn't this great?" He threw an arm affectionately around his friend just as a game official glanced their way, and blew a shrill blast on his whistle. "Holding," he ordained. "Fifteen-yard penalty."

"Tell him, Jack," pleaded the guard. "Tell him we're old pals."

"I never saw you before in my life," was Jack's haughty rejoinder — and it got his team the fifteen yards.

CORNIEST JOKE DEPARTMENT:

"Say, Dad, why can't a man have more than one wife?"

"When you grow older, my boy, you will learn that laws are written to protect those incapable of protecting themselves."

CLERGYMAN: "What's that got to do with it."

MR. SCOTT: "Seems I'm not nearly so keen on going to heaven as I once was."

"Great. She disappeared completely last week."

"WHO NEEDS YOU?"

Improvement Of Schools Needed

Editor, Independent-Journal:

In rebuttal to the several recent articles in Marin County papers, with regard to the necessity of a high school in West Marin and the suggestion that a new plant for the Bolinas-Stinson Elementary District is unnecessary because of possible changes in district organization, I would like to state the following.

Any change in organization (unionization or unification within or without West Marin) will not in any way absolve the voters from the responsibility to improve the Bolinas-Stinson plant . . . The plant will remain even if the county is unified as a whole . . .

1. 150 students to the nine grades in five classrooms . . .
2. No functioning library.
3. Inadequate administration facilities.
4. Uneconomical split site — two rooms at Stinson, three rooms at Bolinas.

To assume that after an organization change the plant has a better chance to be rehabilitated is to assume that voters outside the immediate area would be more interested in our school than we are. It also assumes the plausibility of a four to five year hiatus before thinking about the needs of today's children. One of the prime arguments in which the present board has unanimously concurred is the necessity for action now before unification — for after unification in any direction our needs will be watered down by the needs of others.

Since the Bolinas - Stinson Beach District is one of the wealthiest in the county per student any unification or unionization proposal will increase our taxes while helping to defray the expenses of those districts less well endowed. There is, therefor, no reason to assume that unification in Western Marin County will cost the Bolinas-Stinson voters less than 26 cents per hundred expected cost for the $275,000 bond issue needed by your present primary school in the interest of educating your district's children adequately.

. . . Let us make excellent what we have now and then work to acquire what we would like to have.

Right Or Wrong, Enforce Laws

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Re letters by Carl Rasche and Susan Howell. (The letters, which appeared on April 22, were critical of Theron Newell's Reporter's Notebook of April 18 — Editor).

For every crime there is a penalty. One knows when one commits a crime and its penalty.

If what they get from the crime is worth penalty, give them full penalty. Some of these armed robbers say that they did not mean to shoot their victim, they were not out dove hunting. Capital punishment, right or wrong, is in the law and until it is changed, enforce it.

There are too many liberal judges, do gooders and sob sisters and shyster lawyers trying to find loopholes for the criminals. As to the ministers, with all of the increase in robbery, rape, teen-age delinquency and 15-year-old pregnant girls I think the ministers have all they can do in their parish trying to prevent these kind of things from happening instead of ringing bells and praying after a man is condemned.

Mr. Rasche and Susan Howell mentioned "turning the other cheek." Sometimes this is hard for the dead victim to do. What does one do when one runs out of cheeks?

LBJ Gives World Reason To Weep

Editor, Independent-Journal:

The front page of a recent Independent - Journal showed President Johnson piously weeping over the death of a 91-year-old former head of state. In juxtaposition was an article carrying the tale of U.S. devastation of certain sections of the city of Haiphong.

The crass hypocrisy and immorality of our President and his policies were trenchantly, albeit inadvertently, portrayed by the appearance of these two news items. The President not only does not weep for the napalmed children of Viet-Nam, but he and his warriors give the rest of the world reason to weep for them.

However, the kind of madness that leads to weeping for a superannuated head of state and the murdering of countless innocent victims of all ages should not ruffle us. The present course of the Viet-Nam war will eventually resolve all such moral problems by eliminating the source of them — mankind. For this tragedy the President may lead all of us in a good hearty indiscriminate cry.

Swimmers Worth More Than Hippies

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Anyone who thinks the daily front page stories we see in San Francisco's Hippie papers typify American youth these days should have seen the big "happening" down at the Bon Air Recreation Center in Greenbrae last week.

Thanks to the good sponsorship of the Independent-Journal and Schultz Enterprises, Inc., and in spite of the soggy weather, nearly 600 superb boy and girl athletes swam all day long for two days, and when the final scores were in, they had broken three national records and a host of lesser standards.

These 600 represent another near 10,000 good, clean living competitive swimmers, ages 6 to 18, who engage in AAU competition just in Northern California. And each one is worth a couple of dozen of the few dirty, long-haired, pot-smoking phonies who are getting all the attention these days. These kids know more about getting along in the world, more about true brotherhood, more about honest to goodness peace and love than anyone could ever learn in the Haight-Ashburry if he stayed there the rest of his life.

Congratulations to you for your part in encouraging this kind of youthful interest and activity.

Wrong Place To Complain

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Members of the Board of the Marin Nurses Association have received complaints from nurses and patient's relatives regarding the nursing care in some of the convalescent hospitals in Marin County for the last several years. The nurses are frustrated and concerned about situations that they as an organization or as individu- also have no authority to change.

The only agency with authority in this area is the Bureau of Licensing and Certification of the state Department of Public Health. We would suggest that anyone personally aware of and concerned with this problem write their complaints to Mr. George Morrison, Regional Chief, Bureau of Licensing and Certification, 2151 Berkeley Way, Berkeley.

Was Mr. Patrick Really Elected?

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I am concerned about Mr. William Penn Patrick's advertisement in your newspaper asking the reader "Are you concerned?" In the interest of democracy, I will assume, naturally, that Mr. Patrick was elected chairman of the "Support Our Servicemen" committee by a majority of the members.

The gist of his advertisement is that we must support our government's action in Vietnam and possibly improve upon it.

While dissent is very deep rooted in our American heritage, it should be pointed out that the Communist nations do not tolerate dissent of such an important government action as war. Mr. Patrick's attitude towards our government action in the Vietnam war is quite in agreement with the Communist government's action in the same war. Perhaps Mr. Patrick's advertisement is, in reality, giving aid and comfort to the enemy (the Communist case) if it censures those that do not support their government's wars.

Just as an interesting byline, I wonder, perhaps, how such a staunch supporter of government action feels about the federal income tax!

Reagan Likely To Be Voice In Naming His Party's Chief

SACRAMENTO — Many people just didn't believe that actor Ronald Reagan could become Gov. Ronald Reagan last year. They were wrong.

Many people just don't believe that Governor Reagan can become Presidential nominee Reagan next year. I believe they are right.

The road to the White House may be in Reagan's future, but he is not planning to travel it so soon.

IF THERE WERE not other more experienced and available candidates, he would be in the running. Since there are experienced and available candidates, Reagan will almost certainly have to wait — and seems quite willing to do so.

And most important, he is aware that lack of political and administrative experience — which has already given him trouble during his first four months in office — would be a formidable barrier to getting the nomination and an even greater barrier to winning the election.

He is not going to enter any primary at his own initiative outside California.

He will withdraw from any primary where he can do so without perjuring himself by swearing that under no circumstances would he be a candidate. Such an oath is required to get off the primary ballot in Oregon and Nebraska. Reagan feels that such a statement would make untenable his position as head of a favorite son delegation from his own state.

He is not going to campaign in any primary.

He is not going to seek delegates from any state besides California.

THIS WIDE-RANGING commitment to inactivity is fair proof that Reagan is giving next year's Presidential nomination a pretty low priority in his personal objectives — so low, I suspect, that it isn't an objective at all.

The fact is that Reagan is going to have plenty to do right here in Sacramento during the next 12 months to master his new job, to escape the booby traps his opponents set for him, and to begin to resolve the swirling problems of a state whose population increases by 547,000 every year.

My own impression is that Reagan has made a better beginning than many outside California seem to realize. But the beginning is only prelude and Reagan will need to demonstrate that he can perform effectively in dealing with some of the most acute state problems in the nation before he can make a serious bid for the Presidency.

But if his goal is not the Republican Presidential nomination next year, Reagan does have a 1968 political objective which is within his reach and which he intends to embrace energetically.

LIKE THE GOP governors of other states with large convention delegations — Massachusetts, New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio — Reagan expects to have a considerable voice in deciding who the party nominee will be. This is one reason he is standing as a favorite son candidate in his own state. This means that he will have a hand-picked delegation willing to do his bidding and this in itself will give the governor a major voice at the convention.

If Reagan has decided whom he would like nominated, he's not saying. There is a large element of realism in the Reagan political approach; that is, while his position in the policy spectrum is to the right of the Republican center, he puts value on electability. He wants to elect as well as nominate a Republican President next fall.

I FOUND REAGAN almost completely preoccupied with the problems he must face as governor of California during the full span of his four-term.

Next, a campaign for re-election in 1970 and after that, as one of his colleagues remarked, what a contest it would be — Ronald Reagan versus Robert Kennedy! But that could only come about if the Republican nominee is defeated next year.

Soviet Bloc Ships To Cuba Watched

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — A sudden and mysterious large increase in the number of Soviet bloc ships arriving in Cuba has been noted.

More than 70 vessels — the largest number since just before the October 1962 missile crisis — docked at the island's major ports in a seven-day period late last month.

Large quantities of military supplies and thousands of additional Soviet personnel were unloaded from these ships, which included several with wide hatches capable of transporting intermediate range ballistic missiles.

ALL UNLOADING WAS done usually at night and under tightest secrecy, with numerous troops guarding the docks and roads leading to them.

In direct response to this apparent big armament build-up, the U.S. has doubled the number of high-level reconnaissance flights in an effort to obtain additional information.

So far, efforts to ascertain whether the shipments include missiles have been unsuccessful.

Cuban refugees, who sounded the first alarm about the increased military shipments, claim they do include missiles.

Under discussion in inner White House councils are possible low-level reconnaissance flights to obtain more precise photos of areas where missiles might be stored.

AS HAPPENED in the Kennedy administration in 1962, the Johnson administration is keeping a tight secrecy lid on this latest foreboding Cuban development.

Members of Congress got the first hint of the matter more or less accidentally when General Robert Porter, head of the U.S. Southern Command, testified on the new $3.126 billion foreign aid appropriation at a closed-door meeting of the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

When asked "What is going on in Cuba now," he replied:

"We are doing everything we can to find out. Intelligence is deeply concerned over the increased number of Soviet bloc ships arriving at Cuban ports in recent weeks. During one seven-day period, between 70 and 75 vessels arrived with vast amounts of military supplies and additional Soviet troops."

Expressing reluctance to go into further detail, General Porter assured the legislators, "Intensive reconnaissance measures are being taken to determine the nature and type of this new Soviet military build-up."

MEMBERS OF GENERAL Porter's staff later explained that he was not able to tell the committee any more because of a high-level ban on talking.

It was intimated this silence was imposed by Pentagon authorities.

This column can report that U.S. reconnaissance planes have taken dozens of pictures of Soviet bloc ships. Also the Defense Intelligence Agency has received startling information from Cuban refugees. The reliability of these reports is in the process of being checked.

Things Are Getting Pretty Doggie In Southern Marin

If you think things are going to the dogs, you may be right. In Belvedere, one dog even enjoys free taxi service.

Chatting with a friend at the Boardwalk one evening, I saw a small sports car drive up. A woman leaned out and called: "Do you want a ride home?" We looked around but didn't see any weary pedestrians.

Then, a big black and white dog, marked like he was wearing a tuxedo, marched confidently up to the car and climbed into the back seat.

The car pulled away with the big dog sitting up grandly, admiring the view.

IT WAS DISAPPOINTING to see Dave Ring defeated in the race for Tamalpais High School board by only a few votes.

Not only because Dave is well qualified for the position, but also because Dave conducted a clean-but-challenging-crusade-type campaign.

He felt the taxpayers have a right to know what their elected trustees are doing — and if they are not doing enough for the district.

His defeat raises the question, "Do the taxpayers really care what school trustees do?" Also, "Do they appreciate a trustee who goes to bat for them?"

I can't pin the blame entirely on a fog-shrouded monster called "voter apathy". It makes me sad to feel there is a reasonable doubt that taxpayers are interested in the functions of the school boards —except for the announcement of the school district tax rate each year.

IN A LETTER to Tiburon Mayor John Hoffmire last week, Steve Nash expressed his regret at resigning from the planning commission just when some projects are approaching completion. The downtown sketch and the zoning ordinance in particular.

Steve was one of the original members of the commission formed after Tiburon was incorporated almost three years ago. New responsibilities at Schwabacher Co., San Francisco, have not left him enough time to serve on the commission.

Tiburon will also miss Deputy Gene Brannon, who was transferred to Kentfield.

Brannon was a member of the original force of sheriff's deputies hand-picked by Lt. George R. Barnes, when the Tiburon sheriff's sub-station was organized in August, 1965.

BRANNON HAD A soft-spoken but firm way of speaking to over-parked citizens or wayward boys.

One day, I saw him approach some boys who were drawing designs with their fingers in the dust on a car parked along Tiburon Boulevard.

"Oh, oh," I thought, "they're going to get it, now."

But Brannon approached softly with a big grin and talked in a low voice. I heard him ask, "how would you like it if someone did this to your car?"

I knew some of those boys were not easily persuaded to behave, but Deputy Brannon in his own way got results.

Critics Changing Their Views Regarding The War In Vietnam

WASHINGTON — There has been growing fear in Washington in the past few weeks that the Johnson administration is escalating its efforts to cut off all criticism of the way the President and his people are handling the Vietnam war.

This fear, of course, is groundless because President Johnson has said many times that this is a free country and he not only welcomes dissent, but seeks it out.

He also has said, though, that the dissenters are prolonging the war and the more critics scream for peace the more encouraged Hanoi is to continue the fighting.

Therefore, the burden of ending the war is not on the administration any more, but on the critics. And in a free society it is a tough burden to carry.

I FOUND MY FRIEND Polanski, who has been a critic of the war for some time, muttering to himself the other day.

"Let's see," he said. "If I'm against the war and I say I'm against the war, that means the war will continue. But if I say I'm for the war, even if I'm against it, that means it will end."

"That's right, Polanski," I said. "If you would just shut up, Hanoi would come to the conference table in 24 hours."

"But I don't like the way the war is going," he protested.

"NO ONE LIKES THE way the war is going, Polanski, but the more you say you don't like the way the war is going, the worse the war gets. At least that's what President Johnson says."

"But if I don't say I don't like the way the war is going, how will President Johnson know I don't like it?"

"President Johnson knows already that you don't like the way the war is going."

"Who told him?"

"Probably the FBI. But the important thing is he doesn't care if he knows it. What worries him is that Ho Chi Minh knows it."

"How would Ho Chi Minh know it?" Polanski wanted to know.

"Because Presidnet Johnson keeps talking about his U.S. critics helping Ho Chi Minh all the time"

"BUT IF I SHUT UP, then President Johnson will think I'm for everything he's doing over there."

"I don't think that would bother President Johnson too much."

"But it would bother me. After all, if we don't have any dissent in this country, then we're no better than the Communists."

"Now that's ridiculous, Polanski. There will always be healthy dissent in this country. Why you could get up tomorrow and attack Lady Bird's beautification program and you wouldn't hear a peep from the White House. You could also attack Sens. Fulbright, Kennedy, McGovern and Church and even though they're members of the President's own political pary he would welcome your criticism. That's the kind of man the President is."

"ISN'T THERE any way of telling President Johnson I don't approve of his policies without Hanoi finding out about it?" Polanski said.

"It's not easy, Polanski, particularly when you're wearing that sweat shirt which says make love not war."

Polanski took out a brush and paint. As I looked over his shoulder, he painted on his sweat shirt BOMB HANOI BACK TO THE STONE AGE.

"That's wonderful, Polanski," I said. "You may even win the Nobel Peace Prize for that one."

Disinterest In Waterfront Base

Tiburon Planners Monday night expressed total disinterest in any central waterfront base as a "jumping-off place" for Angel Island.

The commission decided to forward its views to the state Department of Parks and Recreation, which has been considering a portion of the Tiburon waterfront as a personnel embarkation point.

The commission continued to a special meeting May 4 at 8 p.m. in city hall a discussion of the proposed sign ordinance.

It continued until next meeting the application of Rob Rose of Sausalito to rezone 12 acres of his Tiburon properties development near Hacienda Drive from residential to planned residential.

Novato Senior Bank Of America Award Finalist

Diana Castaldi, Novato High School senior, is the sole Marinite among 28 Bay Area high school students competing for $9,400 in cash awards in final competition May 11 for the Bank of America Achievement Awards.

The students will be interviewed in San Francisco by a panel of judges which includes Lawrence E. Wilson, warden of San Quentin Prison.

Winners in each of four study fields will receive $1,000 prizes. Second place is worth $500, third place $250, and runners-up receive $150.

Miss Castaldi is competing in vocational arts. Other fields are fine arts, science and mathematics, and liberal arts. Winners will be announced at a banquet the night of May 11 at the Fairmont Hotel, San Francisco.

Deputy Recovers Car At Bel Aire

A car stolen from Jorvino F. Giuseppe of San Francisco was recovered Monday beside Tiburon Boulevard in Bel Aire.

Tiburon Sheriff's Deputy Richard J. Borba saw the 1958 Buick two-door hardtop at 5 p.m. and called San Francisco police, who reported the car was stolen Saturday.

No Extradition On Trailer Lease

Jim Guy, formerly of Kentfield, won't be extradited from Arizona to stand trial on a charge of fraudulently keeping a leased trailer in Marin County.

It was all a mistake, Asst. Dist. Atty. Leonard Shaw said today after the charge against Guy was dismissed in Marin Municipal Court. Guy was arrested last November in Phoenix on a Marin warrant.

Shaw said it had been learned that Guy lent the trailer to someone else, who abandoned it. He paid $115 to cover the rental during the period, and the trailer has been returned to the owner, Smilin' Ed Wood's service station at 153 Sir Frances Drake Boulevard, San Anselmo.

Burglars Enter MacPhail School

Rock-wielding burglars broke a window to enter a kinderten room at John MacPhail School, 1564 Vendola Drive, Santa Venetia, sheriff's officers reported yesterda. The breakin was reported to the sheriff's office Sunday.

Frank Dittle, 153 Walnut Avenue, Homestead Valley, told officers Saturday that his car, parked near the Tamalpais High School gymnasium, was entered by breaking a right window ventilator and a watch was stolen.

Ross

My Fair Lady

Eliza Doolittle would feel right at home in this stately country mansion with its touches of Edwardian grandeur and magnificent English style gardens. Built in 1906 and modernized over the years, this venerable estate has seen the great and near great enter its baronial hall and gather in the drawing room and high ceilinged music room. The dining room, with it breakfast alcove, has seated as many as 30 for dinner, and the social room with wet bar will hold dozens for more casual entertaining. 8 bedrooms, 6½ baths, 2 caretakers' cottages — all within the 2⅓ acres of grounds in the heart of old Ross.

All-Around Elegance

Credibility Gap

You will find it hard to believe that a panoramic view such as this can exist — but seeing is believing. The contemporary home is small, enchanting and entirely suitable for either a young or retired couple. The large, naturally landscaped lot allows ample room for expansion and a pool. For outdoor living and entertaining this cannot be excelled. $39,750.

Are Those 6 Children cramping your style? If so we have listed exclusively a most imposing manor-house ideally suited for the large entertainment oriented family. All rooms are spacious and include six plus bedrooms, library, family room, den, magnificent separate dining room and modern electric kitchen — all graciously restored. A heated pool and fine old specimen trees highlight the 6/10 acre lot. And the happy ending is that all this is located in what is probably San Rafael's choicest residential neighborhood. The owner will consider a trade and the price is $87,500.

OFFICIAL NOTICE OF SALE OF SCHOOL DISTRICT BONDS

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that sealed proposals will be received by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Marin, State of California, at the office of the County Clerk and Ex-Officio Clerk of said Board of Supervisors in the Civic Center, City of San Rafael, in said County, California, on Tuesday, the 16th day of MAY, 1967, at the hour of 10:00 o'clock A.M. for the purchase of bonds of LAGUNITAS SCHOOL DISTRICT OF MARIN COUNTY, State of California, more particularly described below:

ISSUE: $235,000.00 1967 School Bonds, Series A, consisting of 47 bonds of the denomination of $5,000.00 each, numbered A-1 to A-47, inclusive, all dated May 15, 1967. Said bonds are part of an authorized issue in the aggregate principal amount of $250,000.00. The remaining $15,000.00 principal amount of said authorized issue may be sold when and as determined by said Board of Supervisors, but it is anticipated will not be offered for sale prior to September 15, 1967.

INTEREST RATE: Maximum five per cent (5%) per annum, payable annually for the first year on May 15, 1968, and semi-annually thereafter on May 15 and November 15 in each year. Bidders must specify the rate of interest which the bonds hereby offered for sale shall bear. Bidders will be permitted to bid different rates of interest and to split rates irrespective of the maturities of said bonds. The interest rate stated in the bid must be in a multiple of one-eighth or one-twentieth of one per cent per annum, payable as aforesaid. Each bond must bear interest from its date to its fixed maturity date at the rate specified in the bid.

MATURITIES: Said bonds mature serially in consecutive numerical order from lower to higher (without option of prior redemption) as follows:

Principal Amount	1967 Series A Bond Numbers	Maturity Dates (May 15th)
$ 5,000.00	1-3	1969-1971
10,000.00	4-23	1972-1981
20,000.00	24-47	1982-1987

PAYMENT: Both principal and interest payable in lawful money of the United States at the San Francisco Main Office of Bank of America, National Trust and Savings Association in the City and County of San Francisco, State of California, or at the option of the holder at the respective offices of the paying agents of said County in the City of New York, State of New York, or in the City of Chicago, State of Illinois.

REGISTRATION: Coupon bonds will be issued by said Board of Supervisors on behalf of said school district. Such bonds are registrable only as to both principal and interest.

PURPOSE OF ISSUE: Said bonds were authorized by more than two-thirds of the voters voting at an election held in said district on February 14, 1967, and will be issued and sold for the purpose of raising money for authorized school purposes.

SECURITY: The bonds are general obligations of said school district and said Board of Supervisors has power and is obligated to levy ad valorem taxes for the payment of said bonds and the interest thereon upon all property within said school district, subject to taxation by said school district (except certain personal property, which is taxable at limited rates), without limitation of rate or amount.

TAX EXEMPT STATUS: In the event that prior to the delivery of the bonds the income received by private holders from bonds of the same type and character shall be declared to be taxable under any Federal Income Tax laws, either by the terms of such laws or by ruling of a Federal Income Tax authority or official which is followed by the Internal Revenue Service or by the decision of any Federal Court, the successful bidder may at his option, prior to the tender of said bonds by the Board of Supervisors, be relieved of his obligation under the contract to purchase the bonds and, in such case, the deposit accompanying his bid will be returned.

LEGAL OPINION: The legal opinion of the following firm, approving the validity of said bonds, will be furnished to the successful bidder without charge: Orrick, Herrington, Rowley & Sutcliffe of San Francisco, California. A copy of the legal opinion, certified by the official in whose office the original is filed, will be printed on each bond at the expense of the successful bidder, if requested in his bid.

TERMS OF SALE

HIGHEST BIDDER: The bonds will be awarded to the highest responsible bidder or bidders considering the interest rate or rates specified and the premium offered, if any. The highest bid will be determined by deducting the amount of the premium bid (if any) from the total amount of interest which the district would be required to pay from the date of said bonds to the respective maturity dates thereof at the coupon rate or rates specified in the bid, and the award will be made on the basis of the lowest net interest cost to the district. The lowest net interest cost shall be computed on a 360-day year basis. The purchaser must pay accrued interest from the date of the bonds to the date of delivery. The cost of printing the bonds will be borne by the district.

RIGHT OF REJECTION: Said Board of Supervisors reserves the right in its discretion to reject any and all bids and to waive any irregularity or informality in any bid.

PROMPT AWARD: The Board of Supervisors will take action awarding the bonds or rejecting all bids not later than 24 hours after the expiration of the time herein prescribed for receipt of proposals, provided, that the award may be made after the expiration of the specified time if the bidder shall not have given the Board of Supervisors notice in writing of the withdrawal of such proposal.

PROMPT DELIVERY: Delivery of said bonds will be made to the successful bidder at the office of the County Treasurer of said County as soon as the bonds can be prepared, which it is estimated will be within 30 days from the day of sale.

RIGHT OF CANCELLATION: The successful bidder shall have the right, at his option, to cancel the contract of purchase if the bonds are not tendered for delivery within 60 days from the date of sale thereof, and in such event, the successful bidder shall be entitled to the return of the deposit accompanying his bid.

FORM OF BID: All bids must be for not less than all of the bonds hereby offered for sale, and for not less than the par value thereof and accrued interest to date of delivery. Such bids, together with bidder's check, must be enclosed in a sealed envelope addressed to the Board of Supervisors of said County and endorsed "Proposal for School Bonds of LAGUNITAS School District of Marin County".

BID CHECK: With each bid must be submitted a certified check or cashier's check for $5,000 drawn on a bank or trust company transacting business in the State of California, payable to the order of the County Treasurer, to secure said school district from any loss resulting from the failure of the bidder to comply with the terms of his bid. In addition, bidders are requested (but not required) to supply an estimate of the total net interest cost to the district on the basis of their respective bids, which shall be considered as informative only and not binding on either the bidder or the district. Checks of the unsuccessful bidders will be returned by the County Clerk by mail, upon the award of the bonds. No interest will be paid upon deposit made by any bidder.

There is no controversy or litigation pending or threatened concerning the validity of the above issue, the corporate existence of said district or the title of the officers to their respective offices and the Board of Supervisors will deliver to the successful bidder a no-litigation certificate certifying to the foregoing as of and at the time of the delivery of the bonds.

Dated: April 11, 1967.

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO CIRCULATE PETITIONS
FOR ANNEXATION

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that, pursuant to the provisions of the Annexation Act of 1913, the proponents whose names appear hereinbelow intend to circulate petitions among the qualified voters residing within the territory hereinafter described which said petitions will ask the City Council of the City of Tiburon to annex said lands generally described as approximately 3.6 square miles from Highway 101 on the west to Bluff Point on the east and Paradise Cay on the north to the Sausalito Canal on the south, designated as the Strawberry Annexation to said City of Tiburon.

It is the belief and conviction of said proponents that said annexation will prove advantageous both to the areas to be annexed and the City because it would mean:

a STRONGER VOICE in decisions about the areas in which we live . . .
direct representation on the governing bodies of a LOCAL government . . .
increased police protection, and a better level of all public services from OUR OWN CITY . . .
responsive and energetic attention to LOCAL PROBLEMS at the LOCAL LEVEL . . .
all at a tax rate no greater, and PROBABLY LESS than we are paying!

Said lands to be annexed to said City are:

TV REVIEW

President Of NBC Looks Into Future

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Everybody is a television critic, and everybody knows what ought to be done about it, but under the centralized system of three major networks only a handful of men have real power in the home medium.

One of these is Julian Goodman, president of the National Broadcasting Co., and therefore his views about the video industry and its future are worth particular attention. A while back, Mr. Goodman sat for a lengthy interview with the editor of Television Digest, which was printed and distributed. Following are excerpts from the copyrighted Television Digest "white paper":

Question—Do you see a major change in networking as we know it today, say five years from now, or 10 years from now. A manager of an independent station recently predicted that 10 years from now TV networking will be very similar to radio networking today. Do you agree with him?

Answer—No. I don't agree with him. I don't think in 5-10 years there'll be any major changes in the form of networking. There may be changes in the types of programs that we have. I think we may have longer programs. I think the interest that has been shown in our world premieres (original two-hour films), and the 90-minute "Virginian," indicates clearly that people are willing to look at longer programs. . .

Q—Will the home video-tape recorder have a large, a small, or insignificant impact on network TV?

A—I think it may have a large effect, but it is an effect we have no way to measure until it comes onto the market in a large way. One of the main effects it will have will be in the choice of times programs will be put on the air, since it won't make any difference what time a program is put on. . .

Q—A great deal of conversation and effort are going into creating a viable non-commercial TV system in the U.S. What do you think will be the impact of a strong, non-commercial system upon the networks in terms of viewing and programming?

A—As our audiences continue to grow the number of people in the United States continues to grow: I think there will be plenty of room for all of us. . .

British Betting

LONDON (UPI) —The Official British Handbook estimates the total money staked yearly by the British public on organized betting and gambling is between 740 million pounds ($2.07 billion) and 1 billion pounds ($2.8 billion).

Reshuffling Of Apollo Maker Ranks

LOS ANGELES (AP) — North American Aviation, Inc., criticized in Congress for its work in the Apollo program following the fire that cost the lives of three astronauts, has reshuffled top executives in its space division.

Harrison A. Storms, who has directed the firm's multibillion-dollar Apollo spacecraft program since its inception, was removed as president of the space division in nearby Downey.

He will be succeeded by William B. Bergen, former president of the Martin Co. of Baltimore, Md., who joined North American on April 7 as corporate vice president in the space and propulsion group.

Company spokesmen refused to give any reason for Storms' removal Monday. Currently on a medical leave, he will continue as a vice president of the corporation upon his return, a spokesman said.

The firm also announced the appointment of R. H. Ruud as executive vice president of the space division, and W. F. Snelling as division vice president.

Novelist Kesey In Lesser Plea

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Novelist Ken Kesey pleaded no contest yesterday to reduce misdemeanor charge on the same narcotics arrest that resulted in two hung jury trials on a felony charge of possession of marijuana.

The misdemeanor charge of being in a place where marijuana is knowingly used carries lesser penalties. Sentencing and a probation hearing were set for June 5.

Marin Students Will Take Over Courts For Sessions

More than 40 students from Terra Linda, San Rafael, Redwood and Tamalpais high schools will become plaintiffs, lawyers, jurors, defendants and reporters next week in the county courthouse.

Cases will be based on real ones and will be presided over by Superior Court Judge Joseph G. Wilson Monday and Tuesday at 7 p.m.

The students will be released from classes this week to witness real trials. Then the attorneys will receive briefs of their cases and will be counseled by real attorneys.

Steven Bajor and Peter Kaufmann of Tamalpais High School will be counseled by attorney Stephen Kaufmann of Strawberry. Paula Martel and Melody Lane of San Rafael High School will team with attorney John Rockwell of San Rafael.

Nip Glover and John Wekly of Terra Linda High School will be advised by attorney Ted Schweiter of Ross, and Ed Schimberg and Ward Johnson will be counseled by attorney Richard Tarrant of Santa Venetia.

The activities are sponsored by Marin YMCA as part of its Youth in Government program, in conjunction with National Law Week, according to executive director Martin N. Hanzlik.

Each pair of youthful attorneys, said Hanzlik, will have about three witnesses and the adult attorneys will be present during the trials.

Some participants wish to learn about basic legal processes, some plan careers in law, and a few are in the program "just for kicks," said Hanzlik.

Shop Is Looted

Pius Schwahn, owner of Schwahn's Auto Body Shop at 862 Vallejo Avenue, Novato, reported Monday to Novato police that someone stole money, tools and stamps valued at $60 from the office of his shop sometime during the past two weeks.

Bullets Draft Top Scorer; Warriors Pick Dave Lattin

NEW YORK (AP) — The Baltimore Bullets drafted Earl Monroe, the nation's top scorer last season and a Little All-America, today after Detroit formally mad e All-America Jimmy Walker the No. 1 pick in the college draft by the National Basketball Association.

The Bullets than announced they had signed the 6-foot-3 Monroe who also had been drafted by the Pittsburgh club of the newly formed American Basketball Association.

Monroe, of Winston-Salem State, North Carolina, had averaged 41.5 points a game last season to lead the NCAA's Small College Division scorers.

Walker, the Providence All-America, had led the major college scorers with a 30.4 average. The Pistons announced Walker's signing for an estimated four-years for upwards of $250,000 Tuesday.

The other picks in the first rounds followed in this order:

3. Clem Haskins, Western Kentucky, by Chicago.
4. Sonny Dove, St. John's, N.Y., by Detroit, using Los Angeles' selection rights.
5. Walt Frazier, Southern Illinois, by New York.
6. Al Tucker, Oklahoma Baptist, by Seattle.
7. Pat Riley, Kentucky, by San Diego.
8. Tom Workman, Seattle, by St. Louis.
9. Mel Daniels, New Mexico, by Cincinnati.
10. Dave Lattin, Texas Western, by San Francisco.
11. Mal Graham, New York University, by Boston.
12. Craig Raymond, Brigham Young, Philadelphia.

In the abbreviated second round, only seven players were selected. By agreement this normally is limited to the five teams finishing with the poorest won-lost records but the two expansion teams were added.

Second round picks were:

1. James Jones Grambling, Baltimore.
2. Steve Sullivan, Georgetown, D.C., by Detroit.
3. Byron Beck, Denver, by Chicago.
4. Randy Mahaffey, Clemson, by Los Angeles.
5. Phil Jackson, North Dakota, New York.
6. Bob Netolicky, Drake, by San Diego.
7. Bob Rule, Colorado State by Seattle.

The third round selections:

1. Malcolm Strong, Seattle, by Baltimore.
2. Darrell Hardy, Baylor, by Detroit.
3. John Pickerson, Arkansas State, by Chicago.
4. Dwight Smith, Western Kentucky, by Los Angeles.
5. Gary Gregor, South Carolina, by New York.
6. Bob Verga, Duke, by St. Louis.
7. Gary Gray, Oklahoma City, by Cincinnati.
8. Bill Turner, Akron, by San Francisco.
9. Sam Smith, Kentucky Wesleyan, by Cincinnati (using Boston's selection).
10. Richie Moore, Hira Scott, by Sam Diego (using Philadelphia's selection).
11. Sam Singleton, Omaha, by Seattle.
12. Nick Jones, Oregon, by San Diego.

1. Al Salvadari, South Carolina by Baltimore.
2. Ron Franz, Kansas, by Detroit.
3. Jim Burns, Northwestern, by Chicago.
4. Cliff Anderson, St. Joseph's,

Giants Call On Marichal To Stop Mets Tonight

JIM GILMARTIN

Pro Tec tion For Girls In The Athletic Field

THE THING—Sheesh, why do I get all the embarrassing assignments? Today's topic belongs on the women's pages. Or in the display ads, lingerie department.

I'm blushing so much I don't know where to start. It's about girls, you see, and . . . well . . .

THIS GENT from the Marin Sports Injury Conference walks into the office and flops these (beep-beeps) on my desk, suggesting I do a column about them.

"A fine idea, sir," I replied, "but I think you have the wrong department. The women's department is down the hall."

"NO, NO, SPORTIE," he countered, "this is a sports topic. This is called a Pro Tec (beep-beep) and we're going to exhibit them at the Sports Injury Conference in San Rafael Saturday. You see, more and more girls are particpiating in athletics and these (beep-beeps) are designed to protect their (beep-beeps)."

In The Interest Of Medical Science

"Well, my good man," I begged off, "I can't even mention MEN'S protective (beep-beeps) in this fine family newspaper, so how do you expect me to describe GIRL'S (beep-beeps)?"

"In the interest of medical science, of course," he snapped.

WELL, I ABSOLUTELY refuse to come right out and say the word, but I'll give you some hints. Girls wear them. You can get two for the price of one. With a stretch of the imagination you could wear them as ear muffs or a Mickey Mouse hat. And when I was a kid we used to swipe them off the neighbors' clotheslines and use them as double-barrelled sling-shots. (In fact, I was the first kid on my block to kill one bird with two stones.)

Anyway, these Pro Tec thingamajigs should create considerable interest at the Sports Injury Conference. There will be a live model on hand to demonstrate their durability.

To Prevent Some Minor Injuries

According to a Pro Tec publciity handout, "Increased participation of women in some of the rougher sports . . . and the fact that gym is now required for girls in most schools has created more interest in minor traumatic (beep-beep) injuries, especially to school and team physicians . . .

THERE HAVE BEEN previous unsuccessful attempts to develop a practical protective (beep-beep). Problems such as bulkiness, discomfort and a lack of a non-toxic material have prevented marketing. We have now developed a standardl size, fully protective (beep-beep) to be worn over the regular (beep-beep) during athletic games. The material is an FDA approved non-porous, non-irritating plastic which will not absorb body perspiration. The (beep-beep) weighs less than four ounces and there is no associated discomfort to the wearer. Each (beep) will support thirty pounds dead weight and is designed with a relief-allowing absorption of a direct blow, and will deflect even hard tennis racquets or baseball bat blows."

He Proved His Point To Me

To prove his point, the Sports Injury spokesman strapped one of them on me and busted me a terrific wallop. Didn't hurt by beeps but damnear broke my back slamming against the wall.

WELL, I REALLY can't tell you more, except that Pro Tec will display its product at Saturday's conference and already has paid its $35 exhibitor's fee, amounting to $17.50 per beep.

I dreamed I went to a Sports Injury Party in my Pro Tec . . .

Redwood Spikers Win 5th Straight

Greg Sullivan shattered his own school record in the two mile run as Redwood High's track and field team yesterday breezed past San Rafael 96-21 en route to its fifth consecutive Marin County Athletic League victory, this one at San Rafael.

Sullivan traversed the two-mile oval in 9:55.8 seconds to eclipse his previous 10:04.8 clocking recorded earlier this season.

San Rafael, paced by triple-winner Dave Bariski, won Class B action 96-25; while Redwood's freshmen prevailed 61-52.

Paced by double-winner Tom Flautt, Terra Linda's tracksters increased their league record to 3-2 with an 88-29 triumph over the visiting Drake Pirates (2-3). Flautt, a senior, posted fine times of 19.9 in the 180 low hurdles and 14.7 in the 120 highs.

Drivers Arriving At Laguna Seca

Some of the top sports car talent in the land will be swinging into Monterey this week as work begins for the U.S. Road Racing Championships at Laguna Seca this weekend.

The defending champ is Chuck Parsons, but he has yet to score after the first two races at Riverside and Las Vegas.

Mark Donahue, the scoring leader with 18 points in two races, will be making a bid to dethrone Parsons. So will German Lothar Motschebacher, who finished strong at Riverside.

Field Of 15 Possible For Kentucky Derby

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — With the last of the dress rehearsals behind them, a field of 15 three-year-olds seemed likely today for the greatest two-minute show in horse racing—Saturday's Kentucky Derby.

If all 15 start, the 1¼-mile race will be one of the richest in its 92-year history, grossing $163,700 with the winner's pot totaling $121,200.

Spokesmen from the camps of several probables, however, indicate firm decisions won't be made until entry time tomorrow morning.

Edith Bancroft's Damascus, winner of the Bay Shore and Wood Memorial, carried the role of probable favorite ,with Churchill Downs handicapper Bill Smith pegging the son of Sword Dancer at 2-1.

Next in line was Louis Rowan's Ruken, the big invader from the West Coast, at 7-2 and Harvey Pevtier's entry of Diplomat Way and Free Tumble at 9-2.

Successor, last year's juvenile champion from Mrs. H. C. Phipps' Wheatley Stable, was quoted by Smith at 6-1. Successor has yet to get in the winner's circle in three tries this year.

Perne L. Grissom' sDr. Isby was at 12-1 and Proud Clarion, from John Galbreath's Darby Dan Farm, was at 15-1.

The probable field, listed at 30-1, included Ask the Fare, Dawn Glory, Field Master and Balouf.

Trainer Lou Cavalaris took Cool Reception out of the Derby line-up after the colt finished second to Barbs Delight by a half-length in the Derby Trial.

"He came out of the race all right, but I don't want any part of it (the Derby). I am passing," Cavalaris said after the trial.

Don Devine, trainer for Lightning Orphan, said a defeat by more than five lengths in the trial didn't change his Derby plans at all — at least for the present.

"If my horse is okay and not dead by Thursday, we'll enter," he quipped. "But whether we'll start is another question."

Gene Spalding, a Lexington, Ky., real estate man and one of three owners of Barbs Delight, said the bargain basement colt came out of the trial in good order and will start in Saturday's Derby.

No Derby jockey has been picked yet for Barbs Delight. Bill Hartack, who was aboard in the trial, is committed to Dr. Isby.

The 92nd Derby, only a paltry $2,250 short of the record gross value if 15 go to the post, starts at 5:30 p.m., EDT, with television coverage (CBS) from 5-6 p.m. and radio (CBS) from 5:15 to 5:45. (That's 2:30 p.m. PDT).

S.F. Drops 12-Inning Decision

NEW YORK (AP) — Juan Marichal, the San Francisco Giants' $100,000 pitching ace, hopes for better hitting support tonight against the New York Mets than was delivered for Gaylord Perry last night.

The Mets triumphed 3-2 in 12 innings. Perry had limited the New Yorkers to six hits through 11 innings before Jim Davenport pinch hit for him in the 12th.

In his last start Saturday night Marichal shut out the Los Angeles Dodgers 5-0 for his second win against three losses. Juan's mound foe will be rookie Bill Renehy 3-0.

SOLO HOMER

Perry (1-2) struck out seven and walked two in his highly creditable effort against the Mets. One of the six hits he allowed, however, was clouted for a fifth inning homer by Ed Kranepool.

The Giants tied the game at 1-1 in the sixth on singles by Jim Hart, Tom Haller, and Jesus Alou.

In the top of the 12th the Giants went ahead 2-1 on Hal Lanier's double and Willie Mays' third single of the game. Don Shaw relieved Jack Fisher, former Giants, with Cesar Gutierrez at third. Willie McCovey bounced to Chuck Hiller for the third out.

DECIDER

Frank Linzy replaced McDaniel and struck out Jerry Buchek. Pinchhitter John Sullivan then tagged Linzy for a single driving in the deciding run.

Perry was helped out of trouble in the second inning with the season's first triple play.

Davis and Kranepool were on first and second with singles when Ken Boyer lined a shot to Perry. Perry fired to Hal Lanier at second to nab Davis and Lanier flipped to McCovey to nail Kranepool at first.

Clippers Host Atlanta Chiefs In Soccer Tilt

OAKLAND (UPI)—The Atlanta Chiefs move into town today to battle the California Clippers in a National Soccer League matchup at 8 p.m. in the Oakland Coliseum.

The Clippers, victors over Toronto Sunday, are 2-1-1 in league competition and Atlanta 1-1-1.

Topsy-Turvy Baseball Day

The Redwood shadow is getting taller in the Marin County Athletic League baseball scramble.

The Giants, with general handyman Kevin Wilson scattering four hits, chopped down San Rafael, 4-1 yesterday, and can now start looking back to see who's in second.

The weeks it's Terra Linda, eleventh-hour 5-4 conqueror of Novato yesterday, followed by Marin Catholic and Brian King who combined to dump Drake, 5-2, followed by the Hornets.

THIRD WIN

Wilson, all-around leader in the league, picked up his third win without a loss and got big help from shortstop Kenny Johnson who sprayed three hits in four trips, drove in a pair of runs and blasted a mighty 420-foot home run off San Rafael ace Bill Joost, who is not acing them this year.

That gave the Giants a 5-1 record for first half play, and all but knocked San Rafael out of the race at 2-4.

The Trojans were one strike away from a fat loss in their battle for second place with Novato when they got a big-boom reprieve.

With the Hornets leading 4-2, two outs and a two-strike count facing centerfielder Paul Lee, the three-sport star came up with a trump card, blasting the ball 400 feet for a home run to score Mark Buckley ahead of him and send it into another inning.

STREAKS FROM SECOND

The Trojans won it on an infield out that scored a runner from second. Steve Congdon took off from second base and never stopped, sliding home with the winning run to drop Novato into fourth place.

Drake, which had upset Terra Linda last week, just didn't have enough to beat King, which is no disgrace.

The Pirates did manage to scare the MCAL strikeout leader, scoring two runs in the first on Don Alvarado's run-scoring triple and an error.

But King shook that off, struck out eight Pirates and recorded his third win of the

'Vulture' Swoops Down On Pirates

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Vulture's feathers remain unruffled.

Sandy Koufax, Maury Wills and Tommy Davis are gone but Phil (The Vulture) Regan still is around, reminding the Los Angeles Dodgers of the good old days.

Regan, nicknamed The Vulture for the way he swooped down on victories in late inning relief last year, picked up his first of the season last night in the Dodgers' 5-3 triumph over Pittsburgh.

It's been almost one full year since Regan lost a game. The last time was May 13, 1966 . . . appropriately enough, a Friday night. That came at Forbes Field and since then, The Vulture has been flying high.

UNBEATABLE

He won 13 straight last season and last night's victory extended his unbeaten appearance string to 66 games — 58 last season and seven this year.

The Pirates had another shot yesterday and actually tied the game against him when he relieved starter Claude Osteen with one out in the eighth.

Roberto Clemente singled, delivering Wills, now a Pirate, with the tying run. But Regan pitched out of the jam and held Pittsburgh at bay until the 11th when the Dodgers rallied.

John Roseboro opened with a single and when the Pirates failed to field Jim Hickman's bunt, the Dodgers had runn at first and second. A sacrifice moved the runners up and then Wes Parker, batting for Regan, doubled the two runs home.

SHUTOUT FOR GIBSON

Elsewhere in the National League last night, the New York Mets rallied for two runs in the bottom of the 12ht inning and nipped San Francisco 3-2, Bob Gibson shut out Cincinnati on two hits as St. Louis defeated the Reds 5-0, Houston battered Philadelphia 10-3 and Atlanta stopped Chicago 3-1.

In the American League, Minnesota bombed New York 13-4, Washington split a doubleheader with Kansas City, winning 1-0 and then losing by the same score, and California shaded Boston 3-2. The Detroit-Chicago and Batlimore-Cleveland games were postponed.

Wills, making his first appearance against his ex-teammates, smacked two hits, scored two runs and stole a base. But even he was unnerved by The Vulture. He singled with one out in the 10th but then was thrown out stealing—his first miss after six swipes this season.

Al Ferrara homered for the Dodgers.

FANS 12

Gibson struck out 12 Reds and ran his record to 4-1 as the Cardinals ended a four-game losing streak. It was the second time this season that the ace right-hander has fanned 10 or more batters.

Mike Shannon drove in three runs with a bases-loaded double in the fifth inning after Jim Maloney had walked three straight batters. Maloney, 1-1, also made three wild pitches, one of which allowed a run to score.

Rico Carty smashed a three-run homer, one of only three hits by the Braves, as Atlanta topped Chicago 3-1. Carty's shot in the second inning followed walks to Mack Jones and Rico Carty by Ferguson Jenkins, 3-1.

Rusty Staub drove in four runs with three hits and Houston rallied for eight runs in the eighth inning and a 10-3 victory over Philadelphia. Bob Aspromonte tagged a three-run homer for the Astros.

Four Marin Tar Swimmers To Compete In State Meet

Four College of Marin swimmers will head down to Bakersfield tomorrow to compete in an anticipated huge field of hopefuls in the California Junior College Swim Meet, Thursday through Saturday.

Freestylers John Molder and Bill Cannady, backstroker Dennis Good and diver Phil Minter all qualified for the meet at the Northern California Meet at Chabot Junior College last week.

Good streaked to his best efforts of the season in capturing sixth in the 100 back and fourth in the 200 back. Cannady finished 11th in the 500 free, tied for sixth in the 200 free and came in eighth in the 100 free.

Molder finished in a tie for 11th in the 50 free and Minter was 9th in low board diving and 11th in high board.

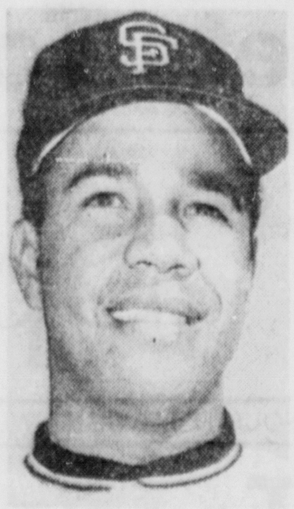
Mets Should Bolster Marichal's Confidence

NEW YORK—Juan Marichal never has been a loser to the Mets. He has a 17-0 career record against them. He hopes to make it 18-0 when he faces them in this new baseball season tonight.

Actually, Marichal should be 18-0 against the Mets but one day in August last season in Shea Stadium he frittered away a 5-0 lead that was a no-hitter after five innings. The Dominican Dandy didn't draw the defeat in that game which ultimately was charged to Lindy McDaniel who put the winning runs on base for a three-run ninth inning homer by Ron Swoboda off Bill Henry.



JUAN MARICHAL

"Nobody is perfect," said Marichal after letting that game get away from him.

MARICHAL IS a very mature person who occasionally turns a philosophical phrase and often is his most severe critic. He bit his lip so hard after giving a ninth inning walk on four pitches to Ron Hunt last Saturday evening in Dodger Stadium that he drew blood. He had not walked a Dodger in that game until the pass to Hunt. He was disgusted with himself although he went on to post his first shutout of 1967 and the 31st of major league career which began in mid-season of 1960.

Because Marichal is so objective in evaluating his own 132-61 career record, it is impossible not to admire him. Perfection is his goal. Yet, he knows he is not perfect and readily acknowledges his imperfections.

"MY SLIDER isn't working the way it should," said Marichal on the way to New York from Los Angeles.

Marichal has so many pitches out of overhand, sidearm and three-quarter deliveries that it seems inconsequential his slider shouldn't be precisely the way he should like it.

This spring after reporting only for the final week of training because of a salary dispute that was resolved in a $100,000 contract, Marichal worked on a new off-speed pitch. A change on a changeup, some called it. Did he really need another pitch? "You never know," he said.

MARICHAL'S CONFIDENCE was severely jolted when he lost his first three games. Only once previously had he ever lost three in a row. One of the losses was attributable to faulty fielding support but Marichal didn't point the finger at his teammates.

His first 1967 victory last week in Candlestick Park against Cincinnati now looks like an easy 6-1 win in the record books. But he repeatedly was in trouble in that game with base runners in every inning except the fourth.

"IT WAS the first time in my life I almost lost confidence in myself," Marichal now says in retrospect.

Against the Dodgers and the boos of Dodger fans last Saturday night in Dodger Stadium, Marichal looked like the wheeling-and-dealing pitching prodigy he is. The win over the Dodgers, who haven't beaten him in two years, reestablished his confidence.

Now Marichal hopes to solidify that confidence with another win over the team that never has beaten him.

Maple Leafs Win Hockey Top Prize

TORONTO (AP) — Terry Sawchuk, veteran 37-year-old goalie who was benched, vindicated himself and brought the Stanley Cup back to the Toronto Maple Leafs.

It was Sawchuk's inspired goal tending that was the key to Toronto's 3-1 victory over the Montreal Canadians last night that gave the Leafs the coveted Cup, symbolic of world hockey supremacy.

Toronto won the best-of-7 final National Hockey League playoff series, four games to two, and ended Montreal's two-year reign as Cup champions. The Leafs had won the Cup three straight years before Montreal took it in 1965.

Sawchuk was benched after Montreal won the first game of the series. He was replaced by another veteran goalie, 42-year-old Johnny Bower, who starred as the Leafs won the next two games.

Sawchuk got a second chance when Bower injured his thigh muscle in the pre-game warmup before the fourth game. Montreal beat him again to even the series. When Bower still was unable to start the fifth game, Sawchuk was given another chance and he rose to the occasion as the Leafs won 4-1 on Montreal ice.

He was superb against the Canadians last night and the crowd of 15,977 gave him a standing ovation when the game ended.

"He came up with the key saves," said Jean Beliveau, the Montreal captain. "There were three or four shots early in the game you could usually count on as goals."

Toe Blake, the Montreal coach, added: "The Toronto goaltending in the last two games was exceptional."

Sawchuk made 40 saves. He stopped what seemed sure Montreal goals. He robbed Beliveau twice on close-in shots and stopped John Ferguson three times. He made another sensational save on Bobby Rousseau's slapshot in the second period.

The only goal Sawchuk yielded was to Dick Duff at 5:28 of the third period when Toronto held a 2-0 lead on second period goals by Ron Ellis and Jim Pappin.

Gump Worsley, who made 33 saves in the Montreal net, was pulled out in the last minute of play and George Armstrong scored Toronto's last goal into an empty net with only 47 seconds left.

The victory climaxed a Toronto comeback that started after the Leafs had lost 10 straight games midway of the regular NHL season and appeared out of the playoffs.

They rallied to finish third behind Chicago and Montreal and then beat Chicago in the semifinal playoffs, four games to two.

BOATING

Grooming Keeps Boat Looking Ship-Shape

By STAN DAVIES

Many boaters buy Fiberglas boats because they "never require any maintenance." Or so the salesman says.

But they do . . . a little.

The plastic picks up a lot of dirt, stains, scuffing and grime from the atmosphere, the water, and from rubbing in a dock. Then, too, the hot summer sun causes some fading in the pigments used in the resins.

So even if the boat needs no maintenance, as such, it definitely needs a certain amount of grooming to keep it looking its best.

If a good washing (avoid abrasives) doesn't satisfy, try car body polish to bring back the shine. The stuff we mean is the kind that comes from the can, like thick cream, dries to whitish powder, then rubs off leaving a waxed surface. Two applications may be necessary.

If that doesn't do the trick, get some auto body rubbing compound fron a garage supply house. This material does have an abrasive in the paste . . . and you can feel it. When applied, it cuts quickly at first then breaks down into a polishing powder. It will quickly cut through the chalky surface film on a Fiberglas boat and restore the original finish.

But there are many other problems in fitting out a boat for the summer fun, such as:

Q. I've got circular scratches (from sandpaper) that show through the paint on my boat. What can I do?

A. More sanding and hard work is the only answer. But in future, when you want a finely sanded surface, do the last fine sanding with a belt sander, even if you have to rent one. I've found it's the rotary, orbital or oscillating sanders which leave scratches.

Q. I've got gouges in my Fiberglas boat. Can they be filled?

A. Very easily. Just get the right material from a marine dealer. Don't try a concoction of your own. The filler handles like putty and can be sanded down smooth with wettable sandpaper (very fine). Colors can be matched, too.

Q. My aluminum boat is stained. Any easy way to get it bright?

A. No easy way, just plain hard work. Try household scouring pads that come filled with detergent. Try wetting them in strong solutions of fruit acids, citric or tartaric. You know how stewing fruit or rhubarb makes an aluminum pot sparkle.

Q. I've got rusty brown specks in the paint on my cabin top. What should be done?

A. The only way is to sand them right out. The specks are rusted particles of steel, left from steel wool (used to clean aluminum moulding close by, investigation showed). Always clean up thoroughly after using steel wool. It rusts very quickly and stains whatever it's on.

Q. What should I scrub my Fiberglas boat with?

A. Don't use anything stronger than household cleaner advertised so much lately on TV. Use a scrub brush if you like. If anything stronger is required, use the auto rubbing compound technique mentioned earlier.

Q. Can I use putty to fill cracks in my boat?

A. Sure, if you want to make a lot of trouble for yourself. My advice is to get the very best marine seam filler from a marine dealer. And if, by cracks, you mean the seams between planks, no putty please . . . or plastic wood. Both shrink.

Q. My plastic windshield is all scratched, so that when the sun shines on it, it's hard to see through. What can be done?.

A. Sorry, I think you'll have to get a new one. A plastic windshield has a tough body but a very tender skin. It should never be rubbed clean with a dry cloth. It should be washed with bare hands and detergent suds. Then polished dry with a soft cloth and kept clean. Grit and abrasives are its worst enemies.

THE TROPHY CHALLENGER

The 33-foot sloop Kim II, a rerigged international speedster owned by Richard C. Connick, will carry the St. Francis Yacht Club's challenge for the historic San Francisco Perpetual Challenge Trophy to the San Diego Yacht Club, the defending champion. The date for the race in San Diego waters will be determined by the Challenge Cup committees on both clubs. The Kim II lost last year when an ill-fated tack on the final leg of the race dropped it out of contention. Olympian Dick Deaver and North American Star Class Champion Don Trask will be part of the Kim II crew.

Li'l League Parents Aren't All Bad, Says New Director

By RALPH CHATOIAN

The screaming of the overexuberant Little League parent "is not the problem that some people make it out to be," says Dave Moore, new administrator of the District 3 (Marin County) Little League.

"I feel that the parents of Little League boys do a good job in not getting out of hand," declared Moore, a 35-year-old insurance broker. The ones who do get out of hand are "definitely in the minority," he said.

Moore, active in the Novato Little League for the past four years, took the district administrator post last February after vote by the 17 Marin County Little Leagues, succeeding Bob Lollick.

Praises parents

SPLITS NOVATO

One of his first moves was to split the Novato Little League into two leagues for the coming season, American and National. The split was long needed because of the size of Novato compared to other cities in Marin County.

Moore was born in Coronado, San Diego County. He went to high school in Prescott, Ariz., and served in the Army for three years after his graduation, and then moved to the Bay Area in 1951. He lived in Oakland until moving to Novato in 1960.

For the past two years, Moore has been in business for himself. His insurance office is in his home at 604 Rowland Boulevard, Novato. He and his wife, Janet, have two children, Randy, 12, and Kathleen, 7. It's the last year of Little League for Randy, who plays for the Tigers of the Novato American League.

"I feel Little League sets high moral standards for the kids," says Moore. "It teaches integrity and sportsmanship. Pressures can be created by parents who demand too much from their children, but this is in the minority," he declared.

The dark-haired, 5-foot-10, 160-pound Moore played baseball while in the Army, but his major sporting activities are now centered around fishing and hunting.

A GREAT JOB

President of the Novato Little League last year, Moore was in charge of the Little League Divisional Tournament held in Novato, and did a great job, according to reports from other Li'l League officials. Moore's hoping to get the sectionals in Marin County in 1968.

In his role, Moore represents International Little League, to help the local leagues if problems such as rules, organization, funding and insurance arise.

"I am hoping for the support of cities to help each Little League program in the county," Moore said.

Academy Nine Triumphs, 2-1

Tom Davis hurled a nifty two-hitter and struck out seven batters to lead San Rafael Miltary Academy's baseball team to a 2-1 victory over St. Vincent's of Petaluma at Petaluma last week.

The Cadets are now 3-3.

Tar Netters Clinch Tie For Title

College of Marin's tennis team gained at least a share of the Golden Valley Conference title yesterday by downing Sierra, 7-0, at Kentfield in Marin's final GVC match.

Shasta, 7-1, has two makeup matches with Yuba to play and a pair of victories by Shasta would throw it into a two-way tie for the lead.

John Zwieg, Tar No. 1 man, made it 18 dual victories in a row stretching over two years with an easy 6-1, 6-3 win for his 10th conference triumph in as many tries.

The Tars go to Redding for the Northern California Junior College Tennis Tournament beginning Thursday.

The results:

Singles—John Zwieg d. Charles Fritz, 6-1, 6-3; Jim Bedillion d. Jim Gavell, 4-6, 9-7, 6-3; Ken Shane d. George Fritz, 10-8, 6-0; Rich Miller d. Jerry Kobberlein, 6-1; 6-1; Joe Jeremy d. Robert Aguilar, 6-2, 6-1. Doubles—Zwieg and Bedillion d. Fritz and Fritz, 6-2, 0-6, 6-4; Shane and Miller d. Gavel and Tom Kubik, 6-4, 6-3.

Ron Cole Has Fanned Almost One Per Inning

They may be scoring some runs off Ron Cole of Mill Valley, but he's getting in his licks.

The Marin hurler, who has worked nine innings for the North Carolina Astros in the Carolina-A league this season, has a not-so-impressive 5.00 earned run average but he's fanned almost a batter per inning with eight strikeouts to his credit.

Eight Marin Golf Teams Enter North Cal Tourney

Eight Marin County two-man teams will be among forty teams competing in the 24th annual Northern California Golf Championship at Spyglass Hill golf course in Pebble Beach Friday and Saturday.

Lowest handicap entries from Marin County are A. M. Garcia and J. W. Zimmerman from Meadow club with 10 and 9-stroke handicaps respectively. They'll go up against Peter Ross of Spyglass Hill and Bob Bell of Monterey Bay at 8:50 a.m. Friday.

Other Marin entrants, starting times and opponents with handicaps in parentheses, are:

Roger Williams (22) and Carl Pharis (10), Indian Valley, Novato, vs. Glenn Bradshaw (12) Modesto, and Carl Haney (18), 10:18 a.m.

H. J. Harlson Jr. (11) and W. H. Reilly (13), Indian Valley, vs. Victor Messerli (11) and Maynard Larkin (13), Pacific Grove, 7:54 a.m.

Robert Cruikshank (12) and Carl Forsman (12), Indian Valley, vs. Mile Walent (10) and Les Foster (14), Alameda, 8:02 a.m.

Herb Welp (12) and Gordeon Walker (10), Marin Country Club, vs. Jim McFall (11) and Jack Foss (14), El Dorado Royal G. C., 8:42 a.m.

Dr. Edward Campion (10) and Victor Regalia (17), Meadow Club, vs. Donald Krebs (10) and Ted Ray (17) North Ridge, 9:46 a.m.

Ronald Gable (26) and Leo Barbour (14), San Geronimo National, vs. Dixon Poole (16) and Robert Towsend (24), Cambrian, 10:26 a.m.

Dixon Buxton (20) and Donnelly Curran (24), Marin Country Club, vs. John Olynik (21) and Vern Inman (19), Skywest, 10:34 a.m.

Hansen President Of Swim Parents

Hansen was also named "away meet chairman" while he and Mrs. Rosalee Kerns and Olive Ryan will share co-chairmen duties for home meets.

Drag Winner

Don Seay of Novato drove his Pontiac to victory in the 2BSO class at the Fremont Dragstrip Races last week. Seay won at 94 miles an hour across the quarter-mile course in 13.90 seconds elapsed time.

Today is Wednesday, May 3, the 123rd day of 1967 with 242 to follow.

The moon is between the last quarter and the new phase. The morning star is Mars. The evening stars are Venus, Mars and Jupiter.

Born on this day in 1849 was Danish-American journalist Jacob Riis.

On this day in history:

In 1865, the body of assassinated President Abraham Lincoln arrived in his home town of Springfield, Ill., from Washington.

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Defender, Declarer Match Insights To Direct The Play

Part of the art of defending is to discourage declarer from making his best play. Part of the art of declarer's play is to see through such little traps.

Opening lead — ♡ 2

East unhesitatingly dropped the queen of hearts.

FINESSE PLANNED

Declarer had been planning to lead the jack of spades from dummy and let it ride if East played low.

If the finesse worked, well and good.

The preliminary finesse with the jack would be a safety play.

When East dropped the queen of hearts South had second thoughts about his safety play.

He didn't want to lose a finesse to a singleton trump honor and then have East ruff the second round of hearts with his remaining trump.

GOES DOWN

Declarer led the jack of spades from dummy, and East calmly played low.

South wavered and then played the ace.

East accepted two trump tricks and his partner's congratulations.

South should have examined the first trick more closely.

If East's queen of hearts was really a singleton, West had started with 10-9-8-7-2 of hearts.

Would West really lead the deuce from this combination?

Clearly, something fishy was going on in hearts.

If South had a good nose for fish he would see that East was trying to discourage him from making the safety play in trumps.

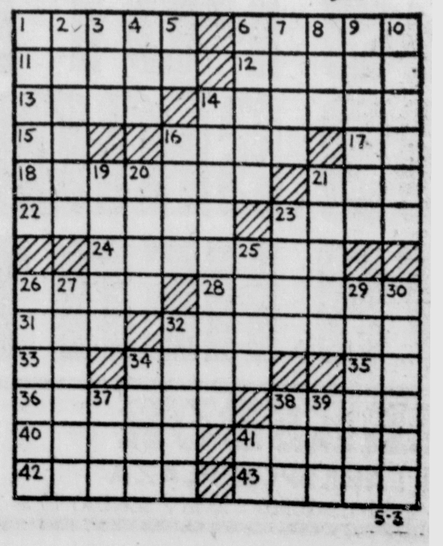
Yesterday's Answer



Purchase Of Tiburon Bank Given Approval

Sierra National Bank yesterday received approval from the office of the controller of the currency to purchase Tiburon National Bank.

Henry F. Luehring, president of Sierra, said his bank has taken over the five Marin offices of Tiburon National with no change in the staff and that no change is contemplated.

He said the acquisition represents an outright purchase for $1 million in assets and it will be up to Tiburon National's directors and stockholders to decide whether they will liquidate the assets or continue as an investment corporation. There will be no exchange of Sierra stock for Tiburon National stock, he said.

Abe Solomon, chairman of the board for Sierra, said the now eight-office banking chain will operate on a "regional basis" insofar as local policymaking is concerned. He said he had invited Tiburon National directors to act as an advisory board in making the changeover as smooth as possible. Eventually, he said, one or two offices in Marin will be selected as regional headquarters but the former main office in Tiburon may not be one of them.

Solomon said it is likely Sierra National will have one or more Marin residents on its board of directors, but they may or may not be from among Tiburon's National directors.

Sierra has plans for further expansion, Solomon declared — primarily in the North Bay and East Bay. It also plans to build new headquarters on property the bank owns at Washington and Keller streets in Petaluma.

Trucks Getting Bigger While Firms Declining

HARRISON, N.J. (UPI) — Although there are about 15,000 different common carrier trucking companies today, the number may dwindle to 50 nationwide carriers in the not-too-distant future, according to a recent transportation study by Worthington Corporation.

The truck merger rate is now 200 a year, the study says.

The trend seems to be that as the number of companies gets smaller the trucks themselves get bigger, the study adds. Right after World War II about 78 per cent of the trucks on the road were no more than 28 feet in length. By 1963 more than 84 per cent were 38 feet or longer, the study says.

SALAME STICKS TO PAINTINGS

Don Collins spends most of his time in his Menlo Park store hanging the products he handles. At the moment it's salame sticks, but moments before it was a painting on the wall. The counters are full of choice meat products and the walls full of paintings, drawings and photographs. The result of a combination of interest in the creative talents of children and a whimsical sign painter, Don is the owner of "Don's Fine Meats and Art Gallery."

Stocks Gain Some In Active Trading

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market closed moderately higher in active trading today.

The market hit its peak in late afternoon and then slipped back a little.

Changes of most key issues ranged from fractions to a point or so but there were a few wider swingers.

Advances outnumbered declines about 6 to 5 and the averages showed small gains.

The market moved narrowly and changes by most key issues were fractional with a few ranging up to a point or so.

Caterpillar, Boeing and RCA were up more than a point.

Polaroid gained 5 points and Pfizer jumped more than 4.

Royal Dutch, which reported an increase in first quarter earnings, advanced more than 2 points.

Gains of more than 2 points were posted by McDonnell Douglas, Occidental Petroleum and Studebaker.
